SLOAT'S SEWING MACHINES,

CAN be seen a few doors east of the Post Office, Milwaukee street. These Machines have proved their superiority over those heretofore offered to the public from the following merits: The elasticity of the seam. The complete adaptability to all thickness of fabric.—They are the swiftest machines in use and least liable to get out of order. They are so simple and complete in their construction as not to require a practical hand to use them. They Hem, Fell and Gather.

These machines will be kept in repair one year Free of Charge. F. L. RAYNOR,

DAILY GAZETTE.

LUXURY OF A STATE PRISON.—The editor of the Chicago Record, (James Grant Wilson,) has the following mention in his last number of a flourishing state institution:

"We visited the state prison at Sing Sing, New York, the other day, and among other curious sights saw a noted forger (who acts as bookkeeper for one of the persons who contracts with the state for the labor of the convicts) occupying a sumptuously furnished room—turkey carpet, easy chairs, etc., and enjoying his cigar and champagne, and learned that he paid $7 a week for his rations. Inquiring for another notorious felon, we learned that he lived in similar style. Wishing to see him also, we could only learn from the keepers that he was 'somewhere around.' Truly a comfortable caravansera for convicts—who have money. In passing through the female department, we were struck with the high color of a rather good looking, middle aged woman, where all look so pale, and on inquiry of the matron was told the person in question was Mrs. Robinson, the veiled murderess, who regularly rouges except in rare instances, when her material is exhausted. She procures it by making an extract from the little red wild flower that grows in the prison yard."

REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT IN SOUTHERN KENTUCKY.—We find the following in in the Nashville-Bowling-Green-Louisville Courier of last Friday:

"IMPORTANT MOVEMENT IN SOUTHERN KENTUCKY.—On Monday last a number of prominent citizens of Southern Kentucky met at Russellville for the purpose of consulting together relative to the future, feeling that duty to themselves and their posterity, the protection of their constitutional rights, their lives and liberty, demanded that they should resist the oppressive legislation of the state legislature and the tyranny of the Lincoln dynasty. They remained in conference for several days with closed doors. On Wednesday, before their final adjournment, the injunction of secrecy upon their proceedings was removed, and we have laid before us a very brief synopsis of their action.

About forty counties were represented in the conference. Hon. H. C. Burnett presided, and R. McKee and T. S. Bryan acted as secretaries. A series of resolutions, reported by Hon. G. W. Johnson, were adopted. They recite the unconstitutional and oppessive acts of the legislature, proclaim revolution, provide for a sovereignty convention at Russellville on the 18th of the present month, recommend the organization of county guards to be placed in the service of and paid by the confederate states government, pledge resistance to all federal and state taxes for the prosecution of the war on the part of the United States, and appoint R. McKee, John C. Breckinridge, Humphrey Marshall, Geo. W. Ewing, H. W. Bruce, George B. Hodge, Wm. Preston, Geo. W. Johnson, Blanton Duncan, and P. B. Thompson to carry out the resolutions."

"About forty counties" are said to have been represented in the "convention," so called, including, no doubt, counties in all parts of the state.

DEATH OF THE LAST REVOLUTIONARY PENSIONER IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—We learn from a correspondent that Lieut. Joel McGregory died in Newport, New Hampshire, October, 31, aged one hundred years, eleven months and nine days. Lieut. McGregory was born in Enfield, Connecticut, 22d November, 1760. He volunteered in the army of the Revolution, was taken prisoner and confined in the "Old Sugar House," New York, for eight months. His fare was barely sufficient to sustain life, though living animals were abundant on and about him. He has enjoyed good health in his last years, though his mind has been somewhat impaired. In olden time he worked at nail making by hand, and has made tacks so small he could put one thousand of them in an egg-shell. For many years he has received a pension, which, with what he laid by in his younger years, has made his declining years cheerful and happy. It is supposed that he is the last surviving Revolutionary soldier in New Hampshire. All honor to his memory, and peace to his ashes.—Boston Journal.

DRILLING AT CAMP MORTON.—We have heard of a Captain, lately a railroad conductor, who, seeing that his squad were in the act of "butting up" against a fence, in his hurry to halt them shouted, "down brakes! down brakes!" So it was with one of our enthusiastic and patriotic Captains who was showing the evolutions of his corps to some ladies on Saturday last at Camp Morton. His commanding officer, a distinguished Colonel, had given the order to the whole regiment to "halt." Our Captain is a little deaf, and, besides, at the time, was talking with the damsels. So soon as he understood the state of the case he hallooed, "whoa! whoa!" at the top of his voice and brought his gallant soldiers up standing immediately.

HENRY WARD BEECHER CONDEMNS THE FREMONT PERSECUTION.—Speaking of the persecution practiced by men in power against Fremont, Henry Ward Beecher says in some recent remarks of his in his church, as follows:

It is a shame, and there ought to be an indignation in the community that shall bring this trifling with the public interests committed to this man's ends to an end.—His means are less. He has had neither the sympathy nor the help that he had a right to expect. And if this campaign shall fail in his hands, it is my solemn conviction that the public interests will have been saciificed for the sake of putting out of the way a dangerous rival.

DISCOVERIES.—The excavations which are being made for the canal for the Isthmus of Suez have led to the discovery at Gizeh of a religious edifice as vast as the Louvre, and which was constructed more than five thousand years ago. At Karnak, also a temple, the circuit of which is stated to be four kilometres (two and a half miles) has been discovered, and another at Edfou, containing twenty saloons. The walls of these latter edifices are decorated with sculptures, hieroglyphics and paintings, still fresh.

A crime unknown as such in the United States has been suitably punished in Canada, Thomas Braund, an employee of the Welland railway has been convicted of criminal recklessness in causing the destruction of life and loss of property on that railway on the 18th of May last. He was sentenced to twelve months imprisonment; the light term being given in consideration of his long incarceration previous to trial.

GREAT REDUCTION —IN— The Prices —OF— SINGER & CO.'S STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed; simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

DAILY GAZETTE.

LUXURY OF A STATE PRISON.—The editor of the Chicago Record, (James Grant Wilson,) has the following mention in his last number of a flourishing state institution:

"We visited the state prison at Sing Sing, New York, the other day, and among other curious sights saw a noted forger (who acts as bookkeeper for one of the persons who contracts with the state for the labor of the convicts) occupying a sumptuously furnished room—turkey carpet, easy chairs, etc., and enjoying his cigar and champagne, and learned that he paid $7 a week for his rations. Inquiring for another notorious felon, we learned that he lived in similar style. Wishing to see him also, we could only learn from the keepers that he was 'somewhere around.' Truly a comfortable caravansera for convicts—who have money. In passing through the female department, we were struck with the high color of a rather good looking, middle aged woman, where all look so pale, and on inquiry of the matron was told the person in question was Mrs. Robinson, the veiled murderess, who regularly rouges except in rare instances, when her material is exhausted. She procures it by making an extract from the little red wild flower that grows in the prison yard."

REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT IN SOUTHERN KENTUCKY.—We find the following in the Nashville-Bowling-Green-Louisville Courier of last Friday:

"IMPORTANT MOVEMENT IN SOUTHERN KENTUCKY.—On Monday last a number of prominent citizens of Southern Kentucky met at Russellville for the purpose of consulting together relative to the future, feeling that duty to themselves and their posterity, the protection of their constitutional rights, their lives and liberty, demanded that they should resist the oppressive legislation of the state legislature and the tyranny of the Lincoln dynasty. They remained in conference for several days with closed doors. On Wednesday, before their final adjournment, the injunction of secrecy upon their proceedings was removed, and we have laid before us a very brief synopsis of their action.

About forty counties were represented in the conference. Hon. H. C. Burnett presided, and R. McKee and T. S. Bryan acted as secretaries. A series of resolutions, reported by Hon. G. W. Johnson, were adopted. They recite the unconstitutional and oppessive acts of the legislature, proclaim revolution, provide for a sovereignty convention at Russellville on the 18th of the present month, recommend the organization of county guards to be placed in the service of and paid by the confederate states government, pledge resistance to all federal and state taxes for the prosecution of the war on the part of the United States, and appoint R. McKee, John C. Breckinridge, Humphrey Marshall, Geo. W. Ewing, H. W. Bruce, George B. Hodge, Wm. Preston, Geo. W. Johnson, Blanton Duncan, and P. B. Thompson to carry out the resolutions."

"About forty counties" are said to have been represented in the "convention," so called, including, no doubt, counties in all parts of the state.

DEATH OF THE LAST REVOLUTIONARY PENSIONER IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—We learn from a correspondent that Lieut. Joel McGregory died in Newport, New Hampshire, October, 31, aged one hundred years, eleven months and nine days. Lieut. McGregory was born in Enfield, Connecticut, 22d November, 1760. He volunteered in the army of the Revolution, was taken prisoner and confined in the "Old Sugar House," New York, for eight months. His fare was barely sufficient to sustain life, though living animals were abundant on and about him. He has enjoyed good health in his last years, though his mind has been somewhat impaired. In olden time he worked at nail making by hand, and has made tacks so small he could put one thousand of them in an egg-shell. For many years he has received a pension, which, with what he laid by in his younger years, has made his declining years cheerful and happy. It is supposed that he is the last surviving Revolutionary soldier in New Hampshire. All honor to his memory, and peace to his ashes.—Boston Journal.

DRILLING AT CAMP MORTON.—We have heard of a Captain, lately a railroad conductor, who, seeing that his squad were in the act of "butting up" against a fence, in his hurry to halt them shouted, "down brakes! down brakes!" So it was with one of our enthusiastic and patriotic Captains who was showing the evolutions of his corps to some ladies on Saturday last at Camp Morton. His commanding officer, a distinguished Colonel, had given the order to the whole regiment to "halt." Our Captain is a little deaf, and, besides, at the time, was talking with the damsels. So soon as he understood the state of the case he hallooed, "whoa! whoa!" at the top of his voice and brought his gallant soldiers up standing immediately.

HENRY WARD BEECHER CONDEMNS THE FREMONT PERSECUTION.—Speaking of the persecution practiced by men in power against Fremont, Henry Ward Beecher says in some recent remarks of his in his church, as follows:

It is a shame, and there ought to be an indignation in the community that shall bring this trifling with the public interests committed to this man's ends to an end.—His means are less. He has had neither the sympathy nor the help that he had a right to expect. And if this campaign shall fail in his hands, it is my solemn conviction that the public interests will have been sacrificed for the sake of putting out of the way a dangerous rival.

DISCOVERIES.—The excavations which are being made for the canal for the Isthmus of Suez have led to the discovery at Gizeh of a religious edifice as vast as the Louvre, and which was constructed more than five thousand years ago. At Karnak, also a temple, the circuit of which is stated to be four kilometres (two and a half miles) has been discovered, and another at Edfou, containing twenty saloons. The walls of these latter edifices are decorated with sculptures, hieroglyphics and paintings, still fresh.

A crime unknown as such in the United States has been suitably punished in Canada, Thomas Braund, an employee of the Welland railway has been convicted of criminal recklessness in causing the destruction of life and loss of property on that railway on the 18th of May last. He was sentenced to twelve months imprisonment; the light term being given in consideration of his long incarceration previous to trial.

GREAT REDUCTION

—IN—

The Prices

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed; simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Wednesday Evening, Nov. 13, 1861.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Our Officers who Return Slaves get No Thanks for It.

It is a fact not disputed, we believe, that several of our generals have been so wanting in self respect and humanity as to return fugitive slaves to their masters, using a guard of soldiers for that purpose. It is a mean business, and we do not see why any man should desire to perform so shameful a work without being under legal or military obligation to do so. It is entirely voluntary on their part, and must be done because it is agreeable to their natures, or on account of the supposed satisfaction it may give to their superiors at Washington.—Whatever may be the motive, the act is not very highly appreciated either at the north or the south.

Southern men must know that such a duty ought in the nature of things to be viewed with great repugnance by northern officers, and hence they must despise him who debases himself by attempting to conciliate slaveholders in that way. We have an instance of the distrust with which the rebels look upon such acts, and the insolent jeers with which they greeted the rendition of a fugitive slave to his secession master, by Gen. Sherman in Kentucky. In relation to this case a correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writing from Louisville, says:

I was permitted the other day to glance over an editorial in the Louisville Courier of the 30th, at the head of which were quoted some remarks of the Journal, on the return by Gen. Sherman of a fugitive slave to a secessionist. Doubtless, the act of rendition was intended to conciliate rebels; but so far was it from having such an effect, that the Courier, the mouth-piece of the rebels in this state, denounced it as a Yankee cheat, intended to delude the "friends of the south." The Courier felt sure that no one would regard the rendition of a fugitive slave by an Ohio Yankee as anything but a transparent trick.

On these figures (says the Journal) Mr. Harvey falls 304 short of the vote of the same counties two years ago, when Gov. Randall was elected by a majority of 3,940. The majority for Mr. Harvey will be about that of two years ago.

In addition to these returns, the telegraph reports Door at 250 and Shawana at 82 for the Union ticket.

Other reports vary from this table, but there seem to be no doubt of Harvey's election.

DONATIONS TO SOLDIERS.—Many of the loyal and patriotic women in this portion of Wisconsin have prepared various articles for the sick and wounded soldiers, and have found it difficult to forward their donations to western hospitals, where it is supposed there will be a greater need of them than at the east, where there are so many hands to work for this object. To obviate this difficulty, Rev. H. A. Reid has been appointed state agent of the "Wisconsin Florence Nightingale Union" at St. Louis, Mo., to whose care all packages of this kind may be addressed, for the use of the U. S. Sanitary Commission.

The general agent of the American Express Company in Wisconsin has directed all agents of their company in this state to charge half the usual freight on all articles so donated. When packages are forwarded, all charges should be prepaid, if possible. We would also state that J. M. Burgess, Esq., Postmaster of this city, will attend to forwarding packages by express to St. Louis for the use of the military hospitals in the west.

ANOTHER MINNESOTA REGIMENT.—We learn that the 3d Minnesota regiment will pass through Janesville or Friday or Saturday of this week, on their way to the seat of war.

The Naval Expedition.

It is probable, as reported, that the naval expedition has captured and occupied Port Royal and Beaufort. The following description, with a look at the map, will give a good idea of the nature of the country:

Port Royal Entrance is an inlet from the Atlantic, in latitude 32 deg. 8 min. north, 50 miles southwest of Charleston, and 15 miles northeast of Tybee Inlet, the entrance of Savannah river. The opening from the Atlantic is between Edding Island and Hilton head Island, and at that point is about three miles wide. The prolongation inward of Port Royal entrance is called Broad River and Port Royal River.

Running up this for about 25 miles bending off eastward through the Coosaw river, and coming out to the Atlantic again through St. Helena Sound, you have an irregular area of about 25 miles by 15. This amphibious region is cut up by numerous rivers, creeks and inlets into a great many islands (Sea Islands) of various sizes, the chief of which are Port Royal, St. Helena, Paris, Ladies, Coosaw, Morgan, Dathaw, Edding, Chaplin, Prentiss and Hunting.

Along the coast of South Carolina, as in North Carolina and Georgia, stretches a a low and narrow sand bar—a kind of defensive outwork of the land, seldom inhabited except by lost Indians and runaway negroes, who subsist by hunting and fishing. At distant intervals there are shallow breaches through which the quiet tide steals in twice a day, swelling the natural lagoons and damming the outlet of the fresh water streams till the current is destroyed and turned back, and their flood dispersed far and wide over the debatable land of the Cypress Swamp. Then, when the heavy rains in the interior have swollen the rivers, their eddying currents deposit all along the edges of the sandy islands and capes the rich freight they have brought from the calcareous or granitic mountains in which they rise, with the organic waste of the great forests through which they flow. This is the soil of the rice and cotton plantations, which are always found in such parts of the tidal swamps adjoining the mainland or the sandy islands as are left entirely dry at the ebb of the water.

The entrance to Port Royal is the best channel for ships through the bars in the whole range of ports below Norfolk.

Ships which draw fourteen or fifteen feet water may go in at Tybee and proceed through land to Beaufort in Port Royal Islands; and from Beaufort, vessels of eight or nine feet water may go through land to Charleston. From Charleston, vessels drawing seven or eight feet water may go through land to the river Medoay, in Georgia, which lies thirty miles south of Savannah.

Port Royal Island, the chief of the group above mentioned, is surrounded by the Broad, Port Royal, Coosaw and Beaufort rivers, and is about twelve miles long and six wide. On the east side of the island, and about midway, stands the town of Beaufort on Beaufort river, the approach to which does not admit vessels of over eleven feet draft.

Beaufort is about ten miles from the sea, and sixteen miles from the Charleston and Savannah railroad, and this important line is itself directly approachable by water through Broad river, and St. Helena sound and Combahee river. A force moving up the river from Beaufort, via Beaufort and Coosaw and Port Royal rivers, would strike the Charleston and Savannah railroad at about midway between Charleston and Savannah, and about fifty miles from either city—a fact which renders obvious the immense stragetic importance of that line. Beaufort is the Newport of South Carolina, and has a white population of about one thousand.

Beaufort district is the southernmost district or county of South Carolina, and has an area of 1,540 square miles. It is separated from Georgia by the Savannah river, and is bounded on the northeast by the Combahee river, and intersected by the Coosawhatche. The surface is low and level, the soil sandy and alluvial, producing cotton, rice Indian corn and potatoes in great abundance. It is one of the most thickly-settled districts of the state, the population in 1850 being 38,805, of whom no less than 32,279 were negro slaves.

We add the following from the World:

Beaufort, which has the deepest and finest harbor on the southern coast, is a pleasant little village of about a thousand inhabitants, situated sixteen miles inland, and distant fifty miles from Charleston and thirty-five from Savannah. The landing of a large force in its vicinity is a menace to both these cities, which will compel the rebels to keep a large stationary force for the defense of each, besides confronting us with another at Beaufort. They cannot send detachments from the latter to either of these important cities so quickly as we can dispatch a large force from Beaufort by sea; nor can the troops at one of them be sent to the defense of the other, without leaving it exposed to attack by a new armament which may pounce on it from Fortress Monroe.—The rebel troops at Charleston and Savannah must be sufficient, at each of these cities, to defend it from our whole southern force which can be wielded against either at will, and which will require the rebels to stand ready with three times as many men to meet an attack as would be necessary if the point of landing had been less skilfully selected.

The country around Beaufort, for a great distance back, is as level as any of our western prairies, which will prevent the rebels, in the battles likely to occur, from fighting with the advantages of ground which has been of such service to them in Virginia. They can make no cunning retreats, drawing us on until a strong position makes it safe to hazard a battle. On those extensive flats every battalion of our men will be at least an even match for every battalion of theirs, and the Union army may count upon "an open field and fair fight," in which hitherto they have always been victorious.

The important relations of this war to the negro question and the cotton supply contribute also to make Beaufort the most eligible position in all the south for a base of operations. We strike into the heart of the region that produces the most valuable of all the varieties of the staple, known in the market as the Sea Island cotton. The district (or county) of Beaufort alone produced, in 1850, 12,672 bales, besides more rice than any other county in the southern states; the adjoining district of Colleton, on the northeast, 13,005 bales; and the other adjacent district of Barnwell, on the northwest, 10,138 bales. This is one of the most opulent regions in the whole south, the plantations being extensive and the slaves numerous in proportion to the white population. In Beaufort district there were, in 1850, 5,947 white inhabitants and 32,297 slaves; in Colleton, 7,403 white and 31,771 slaves; a disproportion so great as to touch southern apprehensions in their tenderest point, and to bring the inhabitants, at once, face to face with the terrible consequences involved in a prompt choice between a return to loyalty and persistence in rebellion.

The railroad crosses the head of Broad river about fifteen miles above Beaufort. It is probable that our forces will occupy that point; but it does not seem probable that they will attempt to march on either Charleston or Savannah. Wherever they occupy they will soon be placed in a state of siege by the confederates, who will have the advantage of railroads for gathering troops, while our re-enforcements and subsistence will have to be sent by sea.

FORTESS MONROE, Nov. 12.

The Norfolk house is reported to have been burnt on Sunday night with a large amount of stores. The bark Seraphine of Baltimore from Rio with a cargo of coffee was wrecked on cape Henry, all hands were saved. The cargo fell into the hands of the rebels.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

The substance of accounts published in the Norfolk Day Book has been received here containing important particulars regarding movements of the great fleet, one report says forty-two vessels made their appearance off Port Royal, one dispatch says forty-five and another that seven vessels ran by the rebel batteries at Hilton Head and Island Point. The rebels say that all guns and their batteries on Hilton Head and Island Point, were dismounted. The Charleston Mercury says those guns were dismounted by their own recoil, rather a remarkable statement. The latest dispatch dated Thursday Eve., Nov. 7th 5 P. M. says, 5 federal vessels are now in sight off Beaufort and an attack is expected to-night. The dispatches in the Norfolk Day Book were mostly from Charleston. The Charleston Mercury has news from east Tennessee showing indications that union men there were moving. They are accused of cutting down telegraph wires and burning bridges to prevent movements of rebels.

FT. MONROE, Nov. 11 via Baltmore 12.

No intelligence as yet from the fleet.—Flag of truce brought up to-day the crew of French Corvette, wrecked last Tuesday near Occracock Inlet N. C., she had no pilot and went ashore during heavy weather, crew 100 in number all saved and reached Norfolk. Four fishermen also came from across James river last night brought the same report as the five deserters yesterday from Yorktown, viz that our troops had taken Charleston. The Dawn arrived to-day from Washington having successfully run the blockade. Thirty-two shots were fired at her. Another flag of truce sent from Norfolk yesterday brought down reports that after the capture of the batteries the rebels fell back to Beaufort where a most desperate struggle took place; there was terrible excitement at Norfolk.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.

The Inquirer's special dispatch from Fort Monroe, says the Union men of East Tennessee have burned a number of railroad bridges and cut telegraph lines to prevent the transportation of troops. One bridge of 200 feet span was destroyed on Saturday morning last, on the East Tennessee railroad. Four structures on the line north of Knoxville were entirely destroyed. A very heavy wooden bridge at Charleston, Bradley county, Tenn., was altogether destroyed on the evening of Friday last.

Charleston is 75 miles southwest of Knoxville. This action of the Union men will convince the government that East Tennessee will redeem herself if an opportunity offers.

The Inquirer has a special which says that a privateer and two schooners in Swan' gury Inlet, were burned on the night of the 4th by boats from the Luzerne, stationed in Chiuticonque.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

A family letter received in this city, dated on board the frigate Sumter, off Galveston, Oct. 25th, confirms the report of the capture of the pirate Sumter. She was caught in her own trap. It seems she mistook one of the gun boats for a merchantman, and started in pursuit. When the gun-boat had drawn her out far enough she turned and run her ashore. Her officers and crew are prisoners on board the Niagara.

From officers who have arrived here, it is ascertained that a reconnoisance by 16,000 men was made an an early hour this morning in a southwesterly direction from Alexandria.

Two thousand rebels arrived near Occatuck yesterday from the main body of their army.

The rebel steamer Paige still harbors in Quointoc Creek, and may be seen from Budd's Ferry.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 12.

The following additional particulars are from the Charleston Mercury, of Friday, 8th. It says that the fleet appeared off the mouth of Broad river between 9 and 10 o'clock Thursday forenoon, and under cover of a heavy fire seven (one account says 15) steamers passed the batteries. One account says one of the federal vessels was crippled, but another account makes no mention of any disaster. The rebels report their loss in the batteries light.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.

Advices from the frigate Niagara to the 24th of October, say nothing about prisoners from the Sumter, and her reported capture is likely untrue.

Washington special—A force of federal troops have been sent to Mathias Point to clear out woods and bushes, and make a reconnoisance.

LEXINGTON, Ky., 12.

The battle at Pikeville lasted Friday and Saturday, and victory was complete. Gens. Williams and Hawes are among the prisoners.

Advices from Kanawha state that the rebels who had been shelling Camp Tompkins from Cotton Hill, had retired upon the approach of forces under Col. DeVilliers. Nine of the enemie's pickets were killed, with no loss on our side. Col. DeVilliers has taken possession of the Hill.

The defeat of Union forces at Guyandotte was accomplished by trickery on the part of the inhabitants. It seems a force of rebel cavalry, variously estimated at 500 to 1,000, had concentrated in the country back of the town. These proposed with the assistance of the rebel inhabitants of Guyandotte to annihilate the federal forces in that town. This force consisted of 250 of a Virginia regiment, and a few members of the Virginia cavalry. It was agreed between the rebel cavalry and rebel citizens to massacre our troops in cold blood; accordingly rebel citizens were very kind to our troops last Sunday evening, and invited them to their houses on various pretexts, and all who were off duty accepted the invitation.

While they were being entertained at about half past eight at night the rebel cavalry dashed into town. Signals were displayed from every house where the federals were, and into these the rebels rushed, murdering the unarmed soldiers in cold blood. The rebel citizens, men and women, rushed to arms and aided the cavalry in their slaughter.

The federals in camp prepared as soon as possible for defense, but were overpowered, and had to break. Very few were killed in the engagement with the cavalry, nearly all killed being murdered in the houses.

When Col. Zugler arrived and learned particulars of the affair, he ordered the destruction of the town, and the buildings were immediately fired and the whole town reduced to ashes.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

Six regiments of infantry and two batteries, and three companies of cavalry, under Gen. Heintzelman, made a reconnoisance to-day as far as Ocquan creek. Captain Todd's company of Lincoln Cavalry also went in the direction of Buck's Station.—They were sent out to make a reconnoisance in advance of the infantry; when several miles from the other part of the division they were suddenly surrounded by a large number of rebels who had been concealed in the woods. A skirmish ensued, and the cavalry cut their way through with a loss of three men killed, one wounded and three prisoners, including it is supposed, Capt. Todd, who had returned some ways in advance of his command. Generals Hallock and Buel leave to-morrow for the west to enter upon their respective military departments.

DARNESTOWN, Nov. 9.

An arrival from eastern Virginia brings dates from Manasses to 16th Oct. The central division of the rebel army was at Centreville, and an immense number of hands engaged in erecting entrenchments anticipating an attack by McClellan. Johnson was at Centreville and Beauregard at Fairfax depot on the right of Braddock's Road and was also busily preparing for the anticipated attack. The combined forces of Johnson and Beauregard is estimated at not to exceed 100,000 fighting men, but reinforcements are expected from Richmond. Their artillery amounted to 2000 pieces, mostly indifferently manned, and horses of poor quality.

BOSTON, Nov. 12.

Geo. K. Woodwin's menagerie was burnt this evening and all the animals smothered to death—some seventy or eighty in number.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

The steamer Bienville arrived at Fort Monroe yesterday, from Port Royal Sunday, with the intelligence of the complete success of the naval expedition. Our loss was eight men and one officer, the chief engineer of the Mohegan. Forts Walker and Beauregard captured, Beaufort was taken and only one white man found in the place.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

Special to Tribune.—On Sunday evening 400 men of Graham's regiment of the Sickle's brigade, crossed to Mathias Point and made a thorough examination the next morning. The bush and houses which have served as a shelter to the rebels, were burned in Occomac.

The Union men are believed to be in a majority in Northampton. In the other counties of the eastern shore of Virginia, the rebels have the upper hand; over 1,000 are in arms, and at one point there is a fortification.

Times' dispatches.—Capt. McKeever, the assistant adjutant general of the department of the west, arrived here to-day and was immediately ordered to report himself under arrest. It is understood that his arrest was based on an order from Gen. Curtis at St. Louis.

Last night Mr. Lowe and Gen. Sickles made a balloon ascension from near Quantico creek, and remained up for some time. The balloon was wafted almost directly over some of the rebel camps. There is no doubt of the rebels being present in a strong force.

I am informed, upon good authority, that Col. Miles will not again be assigned to a command.

FORT MORNOE, Nov. 11.

Special to Herald.—Col. Max Webber with 6 companies of the 20th N. Y. and 12th made a reconnoisance in force this morninug at New Market Bridge. The scouts reported two howitzers in position by the rebels, Col Webber immediately advanced and drew their fire which was steadily returned, the enemy losing two men killed and several wounded. The rebels then withdrew taking with them their guns and slain comrades. Col. Webber did not lose a man.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

FT. MONROE, Nov. 12.

The steamer Bienville has just arrived at Old Point from the great expedition. She left Port Royal on Sunday morning, and brings cheering intelligence. Capt. Stedman, however, left her at this place and proceeded to Washington with dispatches and trophies, two brass cannon and secession flags. He reports the gale encountered by the fleet was very severe; the Union and Osceola went ashore and were lost, as previously reported. The Governor foundered at sea, but the Isaac T. Smith succeeded in saving all her crew, with the exception of a few mariners. The fleet arrived at Port Royal on Monday the 4th. On Tuesday the smaller gunboats rounded in the channel under a fire from the forts, which did no damage. On Wednesday the weather prevented active operations, but on Thursday morning, the 7th inst., the men of war and the gunboats advanced to the attack. The action commenced at 10 A. M. and was hotly carried on by both sides, and lasted about four hours, at the end of which time the rebels were compelled by the shower of shells to abandon their works and beat a hasty retreat. Our loss was eight men and one officer, the chief engineer of the Mohican was killed, and about 20 wounded.—The rebel loss is unknown; 52 bodies were found by our men and buried. All their wounded, except two, were carried off.

Two forts were captured—Fort Walker on Hilton Head, mounting 23 guns, and Fort Beauregard on Bay Point, mounting 19 guns of heavy calibre. The forts were both new and splendid earthworks of great strength, constructed in the highest style of military science, and pronounced by our engineers as impregnable against any assault by land forces. The final retreat of the rebels was a perfect rout. They left everything, arms and equipments of all kinds, even to the officers' swords and commissions, all the letters and papers, both public and private, order books and documents of all kinds, were left in their flight and fell into our hands, affording our officers much valuable information. Among the papers was a telegram from Jeff. Davis to the commander of the post, informing him of the sailing of the fleet, and that he knew their destination to be Port Royal. The whole surrounding country was seized with a perfect panic. The day after the fight the Senora and two other gun-boats proceeded to Beaufort and found but one white man in the town and he was drunk.

All the plantations up the river seemed to be deserted, except by the negroes, who were seen in great numbers, and who, as the boats passed, came down to the shore with bundles in their hands, as if they expected to be taken off. They seized all the letters in the post office.

After the capture of the forts, the whole army, about 15,000 men, were safely landed and established on shore. The forts were but little injured, but the rebels could not stand the explosion of our big shells. The force of the enemy, as ascertained from their papers, was 4,000 men under Gen. Drayton of South Carolina. Our victory is complete, the rebels leaving everything but their lives, which they saved by running; but four persons were found, and two of them were wounded. All hands of the fleet are represented as acting in a most gallant manner. The reporters who accompanied the expedition, from New York, are on the Bienville with full details.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.

The Tribune's special from Fort Monroe, says that the entire fleet formed in two grand lines for the fight. The Wabash led and the Bienville flanking the movement, which was in a circle, first delivering broadsides into Fort Beauregard on the notch north-west, and as the fleet came round, raking Fort Walker on the south-west; both forts responded vigorously. The Pawnee and Mohegan got aground and were considerably damaged. The rebel loss is supposed to be 200. Gen. Drayton commanded at Fort Walker and Colonel Elliott at Fort Beauregard. The rebels retreated up Skull creek to a village twenty-five miles in the interior, where it is supposed, they intend making a stand.

The negroes had already begun to pillage and destroy Beaufort. The white population fled to Charleston, on small steamers, by the inside route.

Gen. Sherman has hundreds of negro laborers.

There was a panic at Savannah and it was believed its capture would be easy.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 13th.

From an officer just come up we gather the following additional particulars: none of our vessels were sunk. The Pawnee lost six killed and two wounded, and suffered more injury than any other, but was not disabled. A round shot went through her ward room. The Wabash had her main mast badly hurt with round shot. The Pochahontus had one man injured. The assistant engineer of the Mohegan was badly wounded, and the chief engineer killed. When our troops took possession of the forts, they found the flag flying on Fort Hilton. The rebels had made works and fixed the halliards of the flag so that when the flag should be drawn down the mine would be sprung. The halliards sprung a mine in the house used by the officers, but did very little damage and hurt no one. The magazines did not explode. A large quantity of powder was found, also a large quantity of English ammunition and projectiles.

It is understood that Gen. Sherman will improve the defenses of his position before making any forward movement. In the forts was found supplies of ammunition and stores of the best description. Com. Dupont will immediately survey the harbor and place buoys and lights, and the position will be made a permanent base of operations. The fleet stood within 800 to 1,000 feet of the forts, using five second fuses, and fired shells into them at the rate of 2,000 per hour. Not a single shell sent by the rebels burst on the ships.

The Wabash was struck several times, as was most of the fleet, but every ship was in fighting condition when the rebels took to their heels. The surgeon of Fort Walker was killed. At Charleston, next day, thirteen minute guns were fired, indicating the burial of a brigadier general. The troops had not occupied Beaufort when the steamer left, being better engaged in strengthening their position.

AGENCY FOR NATIONAL LOAN.

PURSUANT to instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, a book will be opened on the twentieth day of November, 1861, at my office, in Janesville, for subscriptions under my superintendence for Treasury Notes, to be issued under the act of July 17, 1861. These notes will be issued in sums of fifty dollars, one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars, one thousand dollars, and five thousand dollars each, dated 19th August, 1861, payable three years after date to the order of the subscriber or as directed, and bearing interest at the rate of 7 3-10 per cent, per annum, payable semi-annually; such interest being at the rate of two cents each day on every hundred dollars. For the convenience of the holder, each note will have coupons attached expressing the several amounts of semi-annual interest, which coupons may be detached and presented for payment separately from the notes.

Subscriptions for such Treasury Notes will be received during fifteen days from the day of opening the book as aforesaid and afterwards. No subscription for less than fifty dollars nor for any fraction of that sum can be received. Subscriptions of fifty dollars or one hundred dollars must be paid in lawful coin of the United States at the time of subscribing. Subscriptions of more than one hundred dollars may be paid at once; or, if preferred, one tenth at the time of subscribing and one-tenth of the whole amount on every twentieth day thereafter until the whole shall be paid. No payment of less than fifty dollars can be accepted, that being the smallest sum for which Treasury Notes can be issued.

Certificates will be granted in duplicate to subscribers for the amounts so paid, the original of which the subscriber will transmit by mail to the Secretary of the Treasury, when Treasury Notes, as aforesaid, will be issued thereon to such subscriber or his order, carrying interest as expressed in such certificate; but in cases where only a part of the amount subscribed is paid at the time of subscribing, Treasury Notes will be issued only for the payments made subsequently to the first, which will remain until the whole amount subscribed by such person shall be paid, when Treasury Notes will be issued for such first payment also. On payment of each deferred instalment, the subscriber will pay, in addition thereto, a sum equal to the interest accrued thereon from the 19th of August to the date of payment, and on final payment like interest on the amount paid on subscription, which payments of interest will be reimbursed to the subscriber in the payment of the first coupon.

The Treasury Notes issued upon such certificates by the Treasury will be sent to the subscribers by mail, or such other mode as may be indicated by them when they transmit their original certificates. The duplicate certificates may be retained by them for their own security. WM. M. TALLMAN, Agent

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Wednesday Evening, Nov. 13, 1861.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Our Officers who Return Slaves get No Thanks for It.

It is a fact not disputed, we believe, that several of our generals have been so wanting in self respect and humanity as to return fugitive slaves to their masters, using a guard of soldiers for that purpose. It is a mean business, and we do not see why any man should desire to perform so shameful a work without being under legal or military obligation to do so. It is entirely voluntary on their part, and must be done because it is agreeable to their natures, or on account of the supposed satisfaction it may give to their superiors at Washington.—Whatever may be the motive, the act is not very highly appreciated either at the north or the south.

Southern men must know that such a duty ought in the nature of things to be viewed with great repugnance by northern officers, and hence they must despise him who debases himself by attempting to conciliate slaveholders in that way. We have an instance of the distrust with which the rebels look upon such acts, and the insolent jeers with which they greeted the rendition of a fugitive slave to his secession master, by Gen. Sherman in Kentucky. In relation to this case a correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writing from Louisville, says:

I was permitted the other day to glance over an editorial in the Louisville Courier of the 30th, at the head of which were quoted some remarks of the Journal, on the return by Gen. Sherman of a fugitive slave to a secessionist. Doubtless, the act of rendition was intended to conciliate rebels; but so far was it from having such an effect, that the Courier, the mouth-piece of the rebels in this state, denounced it as a Yankee cheat, intended to delude the "friends of the south." The Courier felt sure that no one would regard the rendition of a fugitive slave by an Ohio Yankee as anything but a transparent trick.

On these figures (says the Journal) Mr. Harvey falls 304 short of the vote of the same counties two years ago, when Gov. Randall was elected by a majority of 3,940. The majority for Mr. Harvey will be about that of two years ago.

In addition to these returns, the telegraph reports Door at 250 and Shawana at 82 for the Union ticket.

Other reports vary from this table, but there seem to be no doubt of Harvey's election.

DONATIONS TO SOLDIERS.—Many of the loyal and patriotic women in this portion of Wisconsin have prepared various articles for the sick and wounded soldiers, and have found it difficult to forward their donations to western hospitals, where it is supposed there will be a greater need of them than at the east, where there are so many hands to work for this object. To obviate this difficulty, Rev. H. A. Reid has been appointed state agent of the "Wisconsin Florence Nightingale Union" at St. Louis, Mo., to whose care all packages of this kind may be addressed, for the use of the U. S. Sanitary Commission.

The general agent of the American Express Company in Wisconsin has directed all agents of their company in this state to charge half the usual freight on all articles so donated. When packages are forwarded, all charges should be prepaid, if possible. We would also state that J. M. Burgess, Esq., Postmaster of this city, will attend to forwarding packages by express to St. Louis for the use of the military hospitals in the west.

ANOTHER MINNESOTA REGIMENT.—We learn that the 3d Minnesota regiment will pass through Janesville or Friday or Saturday of this week, on their way to the seat of war.

The Naval Expedition.

It is probable, as reported, that the naval expedition has captured and occupied Port Royal and Beaufort. The following description, with a look at the map, will give a good idea of the nature of the country:

Port Royal Entrance is an inlet from the Atlantic, in latitude 32 deg. 8 min. north, 50 miles southwest of Charleston, and 15 miles northeast of Tybee Inlet, the entrance of Savannah river. The opening from the Atlantic is between Edding Island and Hilton head Island, and at that point is about three miles wide. The prolongation inward of Port Royal entrance is called Broad River and Port Royal River.

Running up this for about 25 miles bending off eastward through the Coosaw river, and coming out to the Atlantic again through St. Helena Sound, you have an irregular area of about 25 miles by 15. This amphibious region is cut up by numerous rivers, creeks and inlets into a great many islands (Sea Islands) of various sizes, the chief of which are Port Royal, St. Helena, Paris, Ladies, Coosaw, Morgan, Dathaw, Edding, Chaplin, Prentiss and Hunting.

Along the coast of South Carolina, as in North Carolina and Georgia, stretches a a low and narrow sand bar—a kind of defensive outwork of the land, seldom inhabited except by lost Indians and runaway negroes, who subsist by hunting and fishing. At distant intervals there are shallow breaches through which the quiet tide steals in twice a day, swelling the natural lagoons and damming the outlet of the fresh water streams till the current is destroyed and turned back, and their flood dispersed far and wide over the debatable land of the Cypress Swamp. Then, when the heavy rains in the interior have swollen the rivers, their eddying currents deposit all along the edges of the sandy islands and capes the rich freight they have brought from the calcareous or granitic mountains in which they rise, with the organic waste of the great forests through which they flow. This is the soil of the rice and cotton plantations, which are always found in such parts of the tidal swamps adjoining the mainland or the sandy islands as are left entirely dry at the ebb of the water.

The entrance to Port Royal is the best channel for ships through the bars in the whole range of ports below Norfolk.

Ships which draw fourteen or fifteen feet water may go in at Tybee and proceed through land to Beaufort in Port Royal Islands; and from Beaufort, vessels of eight or nine feet water may go through land to Charleston. From Charleston, vessels drawing seven or eight feet water may go through land to the river Medoay, in Georgia, which lies thirty miles south of Savannah.

Port Royal Island, the chief of the group above mentioned, is surrounded by the Broad, Port Royal, Coosaw and Beaufort rivers, and is about twelve miles long and six wide. On the east side of the island, and about midway, stands the town of Beaufort on Beaufort river, the approach to which does not admit vessels of over eleven feet draft.

Beaufort is about ten miles from the sea, and sixteen miles from the Charleston and Savannah railroad, and this important line is itself directly approachable by water through Broad river, and St. Helena sound and Combahee river. A force moving up the river from Beaufort, via Beaufort and Coosaw and Port Royal rivers, would strike the Charleston and Savannah railroad at about midway between Charleston and Savannah, and about fifty miles from either city—a fact which renders obvious the immense stragetic importance of that line. Beaufort is the Newport of South Carolina, and has a white population of about one thousand.

Beaufort district is the southernmost district or county of South Carolina, and has an area of 1,540 square miles. It is separated from Georgia by the Savannah river, and is bounded on the northeast by the Combahee river, and intersected by the Coosawhatche. The surface is low and level, the soil sandy and alluvial, producing cotton, rice Indian corn and potatoes in great abundance. It is one of the most thickly-settled districts of the state, the population in 1850 being 38,805, of whom no less than 32,279 were negro slaves.

We add the following from the World:

Beaufort, which has the deepest and finest harbor on the southern coast, is a pleasant little village of about a thousand inhabitants, situated sixteen miles inland, and distant fifty miles from Charleston and thirty-five from Savannah. The landing of a large force in its vicinity is a menace to both these cities, which will compel the rebels to keep a large stationary force for the defense of each, besides confronting us with another at Beaufort. They cannot send detachments from the latter to either of these important cities so quickly as we can dispatch a large force from Beaufort by sea; nor can the troops at one of them be sent to the defense of the other, without leaving it exposed to attack by a new armament which may pounce on it from Fortress Monroe.—The rebel troops at Charleston and Savannah must be sufficient, at each of these cities, to defend it from our whole southern force which can be wielded against either at will, and which will require the rebels to stand ready with three times as many men to meet an attack as would be necessary if the point of landing had been less skilfully selected.

The country around Beaufort, for a great distance back, is as level as any of our western prairies, which will prevent the rebels, in the battles likely to occur, from fighting with the advantages of ground which has been of such service to them in Virginia. They can make no cunning retreats, drawing us on until a strong position makes it safe to hazard a battle. On those extensive flats every battalion of our men will be at least an even match for every battalion of theirs, and the Union army may count upon "an open field and fair fight," in which hitherto they have always been victorious.

The important relations of this war to the negro question and the cotton supply contribute also to make Beaufort the most eligible position in all the south for a base of operations. We strike into the heart of the region that produces the most valuable of all the varieties of the staple, known in the market as the Sea Island cotton. The district (or county) of Beaufort alone produced, in 1850, 12,672 bales, besides more rice than any other county in the southern states; the adjoining district of Colleton, on the northeast, 13,005 bales; and the other adjacent district of Barnwell, on the northwest, 10,138 bales. This is one of the most opulent regions in the whole south, the plantations being extensive and the slaves numerous in proportion to the white population. In Beaufort district there were, in 1850, 5,947 white inhabitants and 32,297 slaves; in Colleton, 7,403 white and 31,771 slaves; a disproportion so great as to touch southern apprehensions in their tenderest point, and to bring the inhabitants, at once, face to face with the terrible consequences involved in a prompt choice between a return to loyalty and persistence in rebellion.

The railroad crosses the head of Broad river about fifteen miles above Beaufort. It is probable that our forces will occupy that point; but it does not seem probable that they will attempt to march on either Charleston or Savannah. Wherever they occupy they will soon be placed in a state of siege by the confederates, who will have the advantage of railroads for gathering troops, while our re-enforcements and subsistence will have to be sent by sea.

FORTESS MONROE, Nov. 12.

The Norfolk house is reported to have been burnt on Sunday night with a large amount of stores. The bark Seraphine of Baltimore from Rio with a cargo of coffee was wrecked on cape Henry, all hands were saved. The cargo fell into the hands of the rebels.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

The substance of accounts published in the Norfolk Day Book has been received here containing important particulars regarding movements of the great fleet, one report says forty-two vessels made their appearance off Port Royal, one dispatch says forty-five and another that seven vessels ran by the rebel batteries at Hilton Head and Island Point. The rebels say that all guns and their batteries on Hilton Head and Island Point, were dismounted. The Charleston Mercury says those guns were dismounted by their own recoil, rather a remarkable statement. The latest dispatch dated Thursday Eve., Nov. 7th 5 P. M. says, 5 federal vessels are now in sight off Beaufort and an attack is expected to-night. The dispatches in the Norfolk Day Book were mostly from Charleston. The Charleston Mercury has news from east Tennessee showing indications that union men there were moving. They are accused of cutting down telegraph wires and burning bridges to prevent movements of rebels.

FT. MONROE, Nov. 11 via Baltmore 12.

No intelligence as yet from the fleet.—Flag of truce brought up to-day the crew of French Corvette, wrecked last Tuesday near Occracock Inlet N. C., she had no pilot and went ashore during heavy weather, crew 100 in number all saved and reached Norfolk. Four fishermen also came from across James river last night brought the same report as the five deserters yesterday from Yorktown, viz that our troops had taken Charleston. The Dawn arrived today from Washington having successfully run the blockade. Thirty-two shots were fired at her. Another flag of truce sent from Norfolk yesterday brought down reports that after the capture of the batteries the rebels fell back to Beaufort where a most desperate struggle took place; there was terrible excitement at Norfolk.

PHILADLPHIA, Nov. 12.

The Inquirer's special dispatch from Fort Monroe, says the Union men of East Tennessee have burned a number of railroad bridges and cut telegraph lines to prevent the transportation of troops. One bridge of 200 feet span was destroyed on Saturday morning last, on the East Tennessee railroad. Four structures on the line north of Knoxville were entirely destroyed. A very heavy wooden bridge at Charleston, Bradley county, Tenn., was altogether destroyed on the evening of Friday last.

Charleston is 75 miles southwest of Knoxville. This action of the Union men will convince the government that East Tennessee will redeem herself if an opportunity offers.

The Inquirer has a special which says that a privateer and two schooners in Swan' gury Inlet, were burned on the night of the 4th by boats from the Luzerne, stationed in Chiuticonque.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

A family letter received in this city, dated on board the frigate Sumter, off Galveston, Oct. 25th, confirms the report of the capture of the pirate Sumter. She was caught in her own trap. It seems she mistook one of the gun boats for a merchantman, and started in pursuit. When the gun-boat had drawn her out far enough she turned and run her ashore. Her officers and crew are prisoners on board the Niagara.

From officers who have arrived here, it is ascertained that a reconnoisance by 16,000 men was made an an early hour this morning in a southwesterly direction from Alexandria.

Two thousand rebels arrived near Occatuck yesterday from the main body of their army.

The rebel steamer Paige still harbors in Quointoc Creek, and may be seen from Budd's Ferry.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 12.

The following additional particulars are from the Charleston Mercury, of Friday, 8th. It says that the fleet appeared off the mouth of Broad river between 9 and 10 o'clock Thursday forenoon, and under cover of a heavy fire seven (one account says 15) steamers passed the batteries. One account says one of the federal vessels was crippled, but another account makes no mention of any disaster. The rebels report their loss in the batteries light.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.

Advices from the frigate Niagara to the 24th of October, say nothing about prisoners from the Sumter, and her reported capture is likely untrue.

Washington special—A force of federal troops have been sent to Mathias Point to clear out woods and bushes, and make a reconnoisance.

LEXINGTON, Ky., 12.

The battle at Pikeville lasted Friday and Saturday, and victory was complete. Gens. Williams and Hawes are among the prisoners.

Advices from Kanawha state that the rebels who had been shelling Camp Tompkins from Cotton Hill, had retired upon the approach of forces under Col. DeVilliers. Nine of the enemie's pickets were killed, with no loss on our side. Col. DeVilliers has taken possession of the Hill.

The defeat of Union forces at Guyandotte was accomplished by trickery on the part of the inhabitants. It seems a force of rebel cavalry, variously estimated at 500 to 1,000, had concentrated in the country back of the town. These proposed with the assistance of the rebel inhabitants of Guyandotte to annihilate the federal forces in that town. This force consisted of 250 of a Virginia regiment, and a few members of the Virginia cavalry. It was agreed between the rebel cavalry and rebel citizens to massacre our troops in cold blood; accordingly rebel citizens were very kind to our troops last Sunday evening, and invited them to their houses on various pretexts, and all who were off duty accepted the invitation.

While they were being entertained at about half past eight at night the rebel cavalry dashed into town. Signals were displayed from every house where the federals were, and into these the rebels rushed, murdering the unarmed soldiers in cold blood. The rebel citizens, men and women, rushed to arms and aided the cavalry in their slaughter.

The federals in camp prepared as soon as possible for defense, but were overpowered, and had to break. Very few were killed in the engagement with the cavalry, nearly all killed being murdered in the houses.

When Col. Zugler arrived and learned particulars of the affair, he ordered the destruction of the town, and the buildings were immediately fired and the whole town reduced to ashes.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

Six regiments of infantry and two batteries, and three companies of cavalry, under Gen. Heintzelman, made a reconnoisance to-day as far as Ocquan creek. Captain Todd's company of Lincoln Cavalry also went in the direction of Buck's Station.—They were sent out to make a reconnoisance in advance of the infantry; when several miles from the other part of the division they were suddenly surrounded by a large number of rebels who had been concealed in the woods. A skirmish ensued, and the cavalry cut their way through with a loss of three men killed, one wounded and three prisoners, including it is supposed, Capt. Todd, who had returned some ways in advance of his command. Generals Hallock and Buel leave to-morrow for the west to enter upon their respective military departments.

DARNESTOWN, Nov. 9.

An arrival from eastern Virginia brings dates from Manasses to 16th Oct. The central division of the rebel army was at Centreville, and an immense number of hands engaged in erecting entrenchments anticipating an attack by McClellan. Johnson was at Centreville and Beauregard at Fairfax depot on the right of Braddock's Road and was also busily preparing for the anticipated attack. The combined forces of Johnson and Beauregard is estimated at not to exceed 100,000 fighting men, but reinforcements are expected from Richmond. Their artillery amounted to 2000 pieces, mostly indifferently manned, and horses of poor quality.

BOSTON, Nov. 12.

Geo. K. Woodwin's menagerie was burnt this evening and all the animals smothered to death—some seventy or eighty in number.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

The steamer Bienville arrived at Fort Monroe yesterday, from Port Royal Sunday, with the intelligence of the complete success of the naval expedition. Our loss was eight men and one officer, the chief engineer of the Mohegan. Forts Walker and Beauregard captured, Beaufort was taken and only one white man found in the place.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

Special to Tribune.—On Sunday evening 400 men of Graham's regiment of the Sickle's brigade, crossed to Mathias Point and made a thorough examination the next morning. The bush and houses which have served as a shelter to the rebels, were burned in Occomac.

The Union men are believed to be in a majority in Northampton. In the other counties of the eastern shore of Virginia, the rebels have the upper hand; over 1,000 are in arms, and at one point there is a fortification.

Times' dispatches.—Capt. McKeever, the assistant adjutant general of the department of the west, arrived here to-day and was immediately ordered to report himself under arrest. It is understood that his arrest was based on an order from Gen. Curtis at St. Louis.

Last night Mr. Lowe and Gen. Sickles made a balloon ascension from near Quantico creek, and remained up for some time. The balloon was wafted almost directly over some of the rebel camps. There is no doubt of the rebels being present in a strong force.

I am informed, upon good authority, that Col. Miles will not again be assigned to a command.

FORT MORNOE, Nov. 11.

Special to Herald.—Col. Max Webber with 6 companies of the 20th N. Y. and 12th made a reconnoisance in force this morninug at New Market Bridge. The scouts reported two howitzers in position by the rebels, Col Webber immediately advanced and drew their fire which was steadily returned, the enemy losing two men killed and several wounded. The rebels then withdrew taking with them their guns and slain comrades. Col. Webber did not lose a man.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

FT. MONROE, Nov. 12.

The steamer Bienville has just arrived at Old Point from the great expedition. She left Port Royal on Sunday morning, and brings cheering intelligence. Capt. Stedman, however, left her at this place and proceeded to Washington with dispatches and trophies, two brass cannon and secession flags. He reports the gale encountered by the fleet was very severe; the Union and Osceola went ashore and were lost, as previously reported. The Governor foundered at sea, but the Isaac T. Smith succeeded in saving all her crew, with the exception of a few mariners. The fleet arrived at Port Royal on Monday the 4th. On Tuesday the smaller gunboats rounded in the channel under a fire from the forts, which did no damage. On Wednesday the weather prevented active operations, but on Thursday morning, the 7th inst., the men of war and the gunboats advanced to the attack. The action commenced at 10 A. M. and was hotly carried on by both sides, and lasted about four hours, at the end of which time the rebels were cempelled by the shower of shells to abandon their works and beat a hasty retreat. Our loss was eight men and one officer, the chief engineer of the Mohican was killed, and about 20 wounded.—The rebel loss is unknown; 52 bodies were found by our men and buried. All their wounded, except two, were carried off.

Two forts were captured—Fort Walker on Hilton Head, mounting 23 guns, and Fort Beauregard on Bay Point, mounting 19 guns of heavy calibre. The forts were both new and splendid earthworks of great strength, constructed in the highest style of military science, and pronounced by our engineers as impregnable against any assault by land forces. The final retreat of the rebels was a perfect rout. They left everything, arms and equipments of all kinds, even to the officers' swords and commissions, all the letters and papers, both public and private, order books and documents of all kinds, were left in their flight and fell into our hands, affording our officers much valuable information. Among the papers was a telegram from Jeff. Davis to the commander of the post, informing him of the sailing of the fleet, and that he knew their destination to be Port Royal. The whole surrounding country was seized with a perfect panic. The day after the fight the Senora and two other gun-boats proceeded to Beaufort and found but one white man in the town and he was drunk.

All the plantations up the river seemed to be deserted, except by the negroes, who were seen in great numbers, and who, as the boats passed, came down to the shore with bundles in their hands, as if they expected to be taken off. They seized all the letters in the post office.

After the capture of the forts, the whole army, about 15,000 men, were safely landed and established on shore. The forts were but little injured, but the rebels could not stand the explosion of our big shells. The force of the enemy, as ascertained from their papers, was 4,000 men under Gen. Drayton of South Carolina. Our victory is complete, the rebels leaving everything but their lives, which they saved by running; but four persons were found, and two of them were wounded. All hands of the fleet are represented as acting in a most gallant manner. The reporters who accompanied the expedition, from New York, are on the Bienville with full details.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.

The Tribune's special from Fort Monroe, says that the entire fleet formed in two grand lines for the fight. The Wabash led and the Bienville flanking the movement, which was in a circle, first delivering broadsides into Fort Beauregard on the notch north-west, and as the fleet came round, raking Fort Walker on the south-west; both forts responded vigorously. The Pawnee and Mohegan got aground and were considerably damaged. The rebel loss is supposed to be 200. Gen. Drayton commanded at Fort Walker and Colonel Elliott at Fort Beauregard. The rebels retreated up Skull creek to a village twenty-five miles in the interior, where it is supposed, they intend making a stand.

The negroes had already begun to pillage and destroy Beaufort. The white population fled to Charleston, on small steamers, by the inside route.

Gen. Sherman has hundreds of negro laborers.

There was a panic at Savannah and it was believed its capture would be easy.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 13th.

From an officer just come up we gather the following additional particulars: none of our vessels were sunk. The Pawnee lost six killed and two wounded, and suffered more injury than any other, but was not disabled. A round shot went through her ward room. The Wabash had her main mast badly hurt with round shot. The Pochahoutus had one man injured. The assistant engineer of the Mohegan was badly wounded, and the chief engineer killed. When our troops took possession of the forts, they found the flag flying on Fort Hilton. The rebels had made works and fixed the halliards of the flag so that when the flag should be drawn down the mine would be sprung. The halliards sprung a mine in the house used by the officers, but did very little damage and hurt no one. The magazines did not explode. A large quantity of powder was found, also a large quantity of English ammunition and projectiles.

It is understood that Gen. Sherman will improve the defenses of his position before making any forward movement. In the forts was found supplies of ammunition and stores of the best description. Com. Dupont will immediately survey the harbor and place buoys and lights, and the position will be made a permanent base of operations. The fleet stood within 800 to 1,000 feet of the forts, using five second fuses, and fired shells into them at the rate of 2,000 per hour. Not a single shell sent by the rebels burst on the ships.

The Wabash was struck several times, as was most of the fleet, but every ship was in fighting condition when the rebels took to their heels. The surgeon of Fort Walker was killed. At Charleston, next day, thirteen minute guns were fired, indicating the burial of a brigadier general. The troops had not occupied Beaufort when the steamer left, being better engaged in strengthening their position.

I HEREBY give notice to all persons interested that I intend to make application to the circuit court in and for Rock county, on the first day of the next term thereof, to be held at the court room, in the city of Janesville, on the 25th day of November, A D 1861, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard, for judgment against the several lots, lands, pieces or parcels of land described in a report then and there to be made and filed with the clerk of said court, for the unpaid taxes, levied by the common council of the city of Janesville, for city purposes for the year 1861, and charged upon such lots, lands, pieces and parcels of land to be returned and reported delinquent for said year; and all persons interested therein are requested to attend at such term of said court and offer their defence (if any they may have) to the said application.

AGENCY FOR NATIONAL LOAN.

PURSUANT to instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, a book will be opened on the twentieth day of November, 1861, at my office, in Janesville, for subscriptions under my superintendence for Treasury Notes, to be issued under the act of July 17, 1861. These notes will be issued in sums of fifty dollars, one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars, one thousand dollars, and five thousand dollars each, dated 19th August, 1861, payable three years after date to the order of the subscriber or as directed, and bearing interest at the rate of 7 3-10 per cent, per annum, payable semi-annually; such interest being at the rate of two cents each day on every hundred dollars. For the convenience of the holder, each note will have coupons attached expressing the several amounts of semi-annual interest, which coupons may be detached and presented for payment separately from the notes.

Subscriptions for such Treasury Notes will be received during fifteen days from the day of opening the book as aforesaid and afterwards. No subscription for less than fifty dollars nor for any fraction of that sum can be received. Subscriptions of fifty dollars or one hundred dollars must be paid in lawful coin of the United States at the time of subscribing. Subscriptions of more than one hundred dollars may be paid at once; or, if preferred, one tenth at the time of subscribing and one-third of the whole amount on every twentieth day thereafter until the whole shall be paid. No payment of less than fifty dollars can be accepted, that being the smallest sum for which Treasury Notes can be issued.

Certificates will be granted in duplicate to subscribers for the amounts so paid, the original of which the subscriber will transmit by mail to the Secretary of the Treasury, when Treasury Notes, as aforesaid, will be issued thereon to such subscriber or his order, carrying interest as expressed in such certificate; but in cases where only a part of the amount subscribed is paid at the time of subscribing, Treasury Notes will be issued only for the payments made subsequently to the first, which will remain until the whole amount subscribed by such person shall be paid, when Treasury Notes will be issued for such first payment also. On payment of each deferred instalment, the subscriber will pay, in addition thereto, a sum equal to the interest accrued thereon from the 19th of August to the date of payment, and on final payment like interest on the amount paid on subscription, which payments of interest will be reimbursed to the subscriber in the payment of the first coupon.

The Treasury Notes issued upon such certificates by the Treasury will be sent to the subscribers my mail, or such other mode as may be indicated by them when they transmit their original certificates. The duplicate certificates may be retained by them for their own security. WM. M. TALLMAN, Agent
Janesville, Nov. 12th, 1861. for National Loan.

New Fall and Winter Millinery.

The Largest and Best Stock of the Season,

MISS REYNOLDS informs her friends and the public that she has now the largest and best stock of

MILLINERY GOODS

ever offered for sale by her. Her stock comprises all the latest style of materials and manufactured work, and every article will be sold at the preferring to sell at a small profit rather than keep her goods over for another season.

Bonnets from $1,50 to $10,00, according to style and quality. Caps and Head-dresses constantly on hand. In short, everything kept in a first class Millinery Store will be found in her shop, or manufactured promptly to order. All her purchases were made for cash, and she is thus enabled to sell at the lowest living profits.

DRESS MAKING.

She is also prepared to cut or make dresses in the latest styles, or change old dresses to the new styles.

Her friends and the public generally are invited to call and examine. Shop in the old place, Exchange Block, west end of Upper Bridge.

ROCK COUNTY OFFICIAL CANVASS.—The official canvass of this county was completed to-day, and shows the following majorities on the state ticket:

Harvey	1,827
Salomon	1,330
Lewis	1,865
Hastings	1,980
Howe	1,667
Ramsay	1,862
Pickard	1,994

THIRTEENTH REGIMENT.—Rev. H. C. Tilton has been appointed chaplain and J. W. Allen sutler of the 13th regiment.

☞ The sale of those engravings will take place this evening at 7 o'clock.

☞ Winchell will be at Lappin's Hall Friday evening, with an entire new budget.

CONCERT THURSDAY EVENING.—The musical convention now in session in this city is a decided success, there being a very large attendance of the best singers in this section of the state. Mr. Root is assisted by Mrs. Mattison and Miss Root. The convention will close with a concert on Thursday evening, in Lappin's Hall. This will be a rare opportunity for our citizens to hear some of the best musical talent in the country. Mrs. Mattison will be remembered with great pleasure by those who witnessed her truly wonderful musical power one year since. It is claimed by good judges that she is now one of the best American singers. It is understood that our citizens will give this effort to improve our singing a cordial and generous support.

TOWN OF UNION.—Notwithstanding the war and general pressure of the times, we see continual evidences of prosperity thro'out Rock county. An idea of the thrift and industrious character of our people may be formed from the fact that there is in course of construction and completion, in the town of Union alone, about thirty new dwellings—Evansville and vicinity having the greater part. Many of these are of commodious and substantial character, on solid foundations, raising their heads high with beauty of design and enduring solidity. In this class is the new brick store in Evansville commenced last February by Mr. James Lemon, the hall over which, 60x22 feet, is occupied by Union Lodge No. 32, F. & A. M., the first floor being of the most tasteful and substantial kind of modern mercantile establishments.

GRAND CONCERT.—The musical convention now in session at Lappin's Hall, under the direction of George F. Root, will close with a concert on Thursday evening, Nov. 14th, commencing at 7 o'clock precisely.

The chorus is one of the finest assembled in the city, and will be assisted by Mrs. Mattison of Chicago, now one of the best American singers. The performance will consist of choruses, solos, duets and quartets by the convention, in which Mrs. Mattison, Miss F. A. Root and Mr. Root will take a part. Tickets 25 cents—for sale at the door.

More About Sugar Cane.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Permit me to introduce to your notice a sample of syrup made from Chinese sugar cane, raised by me this season. Having for the last four years experimented in its culture, I have come (as the Frenchman said) to the "grand conclusion" that sorghum syrup is a fixed fact, and that it will pay, and that the sooner the farmers of Wisconsin go into its cultivation the better. Nine-tenths of the sweetening used in every farmer's family, may be made at home; thereby lessening his expenditures very materially, and having at the same time a better and cleanlier article than he usually buys.

We use it in coffee, and it very readily enters into all our culinary arrangements. If every farmer in the free state would cultivate only one half an acre (which will produce two barrels,) it would send a bomb shell into the plantations of Louisiana, that would be more effectual than all our armies, for it would call forth the exclamation of Othello "My occupation's gone," and ask in that event what would slaves be worth.

The question is often asked, what shall we do for mills. Our enterprising townsmen, Messrs. Harris, Guild & Angel, have made a most superior article, which will crush it so thoroughly that you can almost ignite it with a match. In some future article I will endeavor to give my mode of cultivation, harvesting and boiling. I have no axes to grind in relation to this matter. It has been so beneficial and economical in my familly, that I desire others may be equally benefitted. Yours respectfully,

W. C. LOWBER.

P. S. Persons desirous of seeing the "modus operandi" of syrup manufacture, in full blast, will please call at my plantation this and the following week.

W. C. L.

We understand that Mr. James A. Denniston is using this syrup at his bakery opposite the Hyatt House, and is well pleased with it. He considers it in all respects equal to the southern syrup. A specimen may be found at this office.—EDS. GAZETTE.

Apportioning Jurors.—A. W. Root, City of Beloit; A. C. Douglass, Plymouth; Joseph Doolittle, Magnolia.

A large number of accounts were presented and referred.

Mr. Collins offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the chair, whose duty it shall be to prepare and present to this board a report of the amount of money necessary to be raised for the support of the families of men, citizens of the county of Rock, who have volunteered and are in the military service of the state, or of the United States, together with a plan for the distribution of the same among the families thus to be assisted.

The chair appointed the following committee under this resolution: H. W. Collins, A. W. Root, H. G. Greenman.

The chair appointed H. Northrop to act in place of S. K. Blodgett, on committees.

Mr. Greenman offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the sum of $20 be and is hereby appropriated to H. S. Gould as a remuneration for expenses and services rendered in arresting and delivering S. C. Bigelow to the sheriff of Rock county. Referred to committee on miscellaneous acct's.

We purchased at one Bankrupt Sale in New York, for net cash,

OVER 1,000 SHAWLS!

consisting of Square and Long Broche Shawls, Wool do do., Stellas, and almost all styles in market. We call particular attention to our stock of which we will sell at about half the usual price. For instance, we sell at $20 the same style that we asked $40 for last year.

CHAIN LAIN SHAWLS,

1,000 pieces assorted fancy

HARRIS AND FRENCH CASSIMERES,

SATINETTS AND KENTUCKY JEANS,

at a Great Reduction; with the largest stock of

Ready-Made Clothing

in the state French, English and German fine and coarse

Cloths, Vestings, &c.,

which we will

MANUFACTURE TO ORDER

or sell by the yard or piece. Persons purchasing cloth can have the same cut and trimmed at our Clothing Department.

We will now say, in conclusion, to the rich and poor, old and young, that will not be undersold by any firm in the United States. Don't be deceived by false signals, but come to the store of McKey & Bro.'s where you will see more goods than the combined stocks of the would-be large stores of this city.

To meet the wants of our increasing trade, we are now enlarging our store, which, when completed, will compare in size with any west of New York city. The new addition will be completed in 30 days from date, making the size of our store 44 by 100 feet, enabling us to do all our wholesale and retail business on the ground floor. Respectfully Submitted,

Thirteenth Regiment.—Rev. H. C. Tilton has been appointed chaplain and J. W. Allen sutler of the 13th regiment.

☞ The sale of those engravings will take place this evening at 7 o'clock.

☞ Winchell will be at Lappin's Hall Friday evening, with an entire new budget.

Concert Thursday Evening.—The musical convention now in session in this city is a decided success, there being a very large attendance of the best singers in this section of the state. Mr. Root is assisted by Mrs. Mattison and Miss Root. The convention will close with a concert on Thursday evening, in Lappin's Hall. This will be a rare opportunity for our citizens to hear some of the best musical talent in the country. Mrs. Mattison will be remembered with great pleasure by those who witnessed her truly wonderful musical power one year since. It is claimed by good judges that she is now one of the best American singers. It is understood that our citizens will give this effort to improve our singing a cordial and generous support.

Town of Union.—Notwithstanding the war and general pressure of the times, we see continual evidences of prosperity thro'out Rock county. An idea of the thrift and industrious character of our people may be formed from the fact that there is in course of construction and completion, in the town of Union alone, about thirty new dwellings—Evansville and vicinity having the greater part. Many of these are of commodious and substantial character, on solid foundations, raising their heads high with beauty of design and enduring solidity. In this class is the new brick store in Evansville commenced last February by Mr. James Lemon, the hall over which, 60x22 feet, is occupied by Union Lodge No. 32, F. & A. M., the first floor being of the most tasteful and substantial kind of modern mercantile establishments.

Grand Concert.—The musical convention now in session at Lappin's Hall, under the direction of George F. Root, will close with a concert on Thursday evening, Nov. 14th, commencing at 7 o'clock precisely.

The chorus is one of the finest assembled in the city, and will be assisted by Mrs. Mattison of Chicago, now one of the best American singers. The performance will consist of choruses, solos, duets and quartets by the convention, in which Mrs. Mattison, Miss F. A. Root and Mr. Root will take a part. Tickets 25 cents—for sale at the door.

More About Sugar Cane.

Messrs. Editors:—Permit me to introduce to your notice a sample of syrup made from Chinese sugar cane, raised by me this season. Having for the last four years experimented in its culture, I have come (as the Frenchman said) to the "grand conclusion" that sorghum syrup is a fixed fact, and that it will pay, and that the sooner the farmers of Wisconsin go into its cultivation the better. Nine-tenths of the sweetening used in every farmer's family, may be made at home; thereby lessening his expenditures very materially, and having at the same time a better and cleanlier article than he usually buys.

We use it in coffee, and it very readily enters into all our culinary arrangements. If every farmer in the free state would cultivate only one half an acre (which will produce two barrels,) it would send a bomb shell into the plantations of Louisiana, that would be more effectual than all our armies, for it would call forth the exclamation of Othello "My occupation's gone," and ask in that event what would slaves be worth.

The question is often asked, what shall we do for mills. Our enterprising townsmen, Messrs. Harris, Guild & Angel, have made a most superior article, which will crush it so thoroughly that you can almost ignite it with a match. In some future article I will endeavor to give my mode of cultivation, harvesting and boiling. I have no axes to grind in relation to this matter. It has been so beneficial and economical in my familly, that I desire others may be equally benefitted. Yours respectfully,

W. C. LOWBER.

P. S. Persons desirous of seeing the "modus operandi" of syrup manufacture, in full blast, will please call at my plantation this and the following week.

W. C. L.

We understand that Mr. James A. Denniston is using this syrup at his bakery opposite the Hyatt House, and is well pleased with it. He considers it in all respects equal to the southern syrup. A specimen may be found at this office.—Eds. Gazette.

Very few diseases are so mortal as the fear of death.

County Board of Supervisors.

Wednesday, Nov. 13th, 1861.

Board met pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by A. W. Pope, chairman.

At roll call the following members were absent; Geo. Playter, L. G. Fisher, S. K. Blodgett, N. Parker, H. W. Collins and H. S. Shelton.

Minutes were read and approved.

Apportioning Jurors.—A. W. Root, City of Beloit; A. C. Douglass, Plymouth; Joseph Doolittle, Magnolia.

A large number of accounts were presented and referred.

Mr. Collins offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the chair, whose duty it shall be to prepare and present to this board a report of the amount of money necessary to be raised for the support of the families of men, citizens of the county of Rock, who have volunteered and are in the military service of the state, or of the United States, together with a plan for the distribution of the same among the families thus to be assisted.

The chair appointed the following committee under this resolution: H. W. Collins, A. W. Root, H. G. Greenman.

The chair appointed H. Northrop to act in place of S. K. Blodgett, on committees.

Mr. Greenman offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the sum of $20 be and is hereby appropriated to H. S. Gould as a remuneration for expenses and services rendered in arresting and delivering S. C. Bigelow to the sheriff of Rock county. Referred to committee on miscellaneous acct's.

Adjourned to 3½ o'clock P. M.

Horses Wanted.—Those having horses to sell will now have an opportunity in supplying the Barstow Cavalry Regiment. See advertisemnnt in another column.

McKEY & BRO.,

within the last 15 days! All of which are now

Opened, Marked and Ready for Sale.

AMONG them are the following:

100 CASES OF PRINTS, containing 100,000 yards, consisting of Phillip Allen's, Wamsutta and American Print Works, being the entire stock of a New York Jobber, are all new Fall Styles, which, notwithstanding the advance on all Cotton Goods, we will sell until disposed of at 9c per yard, sold all over the Union at 12s to 15c.

25,000 yards Madder Prints, at 6¼c per yard, worth 10c.

10,000 yards good Madder Prints, at 20 yards for one dollar—only 5 cents per yard, worth to-day 8 cents per yard.

3,500 yards Fancy Figured Delaines, at 1 shilling per yard.

4,500 yards best French and American Delaines, at 20 cts per yard. Sold in every city of the United States, except Janesville, at 25 cts per yard.

15,000 yards of various styles of

DRESS GOODS!

Latest Importations, averaging from 12½ cts upward.

Small white and black Plaids, so much worn at present, just received. Also Fancy Plaids, so much called for.

300 pieces plain and fancy Merinoes, all shades; having been purchased at auction, we can afford to sell them for less than cost of importation.

200 pieces all wool Delaine, bought as above, at 31 cents only, but well worth 50 cents per yard.

25 Pieces Lady's Cloth, fine black and beavers, the latest style for cloaks, also all trimmings to match.

10 bales cheap brown Factory, at 6 pence per yard.

25 bales full yard wide Sheeting, at 8 cents per yard.

25 bales good, heavy, yard wide Brown Sheetings, at 10 cents.

We have more than our usual stock of

CANTON FLANNELS,

Tickings, Denims, Shirting, Stripes, Wool Flannel in any quantity, Table Cloths, and a general stock of Toweltings, Napkins, Bosom Linens, Pocket Handkerchiefs, &c., &c.

25 Pieces Black Italian Silk, just from Auction, at 75 cents per yard.

We purchased at one Bankrupt Sale in New York, for net cash,

OVER 1,000 SHAWLS!

consisting of Square and Long Broche Shawls, Wool do do., Stellas, and almost all styles in market. We call particular attention to our stock of which we will sell at about half the usual price. For instance, we sell at $20 the same style that we asked $40 for last year.

CHAIN LAIN SHAWLS,

1,000 pieces assorted fancy

HARRIS AND FRENCH CASSIMERES,

SATINETTS AND KENTUCKY JEANS,

at a Great Reduction; with the largest stock of

Ready-Made Clothing

in the state. French, English and German fine and coarse

Cloths, Vestings, &c.,

which we will

MANUFACTURE TO ORDER

or sell by the yard or piece. Persons purchasing cloth can have the same cut and trimmed at our Clothing Department.

We will now say, in conclusion, to the rich and poor, old and young, that will not be undersold by any firm in the United States. Don't be deceived by false signals, but come to the store of McKey & Bro.'s where you will see more goods than the combined stocks of the would-be large stores of this city.

To meet the wants of our increasing trade, we are now enlarging our store, which, when completed, will compare in size with any west of New York city. The new addition will be completed in 90 days from date, making the size of our store 44 by 166 feet, enabling us to do all our wholesale and retail business on the ground floor. Respectfully Submitted,

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

Cash Capital over - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

Bryant, Bell and Stratton's Consolidated Chicago Commercial College

Link in the National Chain.

LOCATED AT

CHICAGO, St. Louis, New York, Philadelphia, Albany, Buffalo, Cleveland and Detroit. Scholarship good through the entire chain of eight Colleges.

CONSOLIDATION of "Bryant & Stratton's Mercantile College" and "Bell's Commercial College," now conducted as one Institution which is the recipient of an extraordinary and unprecedented patronage.

LARMON BLOCK,

Corner Clark and Washington Streets, Chicago.

H. B. BRYANT, D. V. BELL, H. D. STRATTON.

Principals and Proprietors.

By this consolidation the collegiate course of this Institution is greatly enlarged and with the improvements which the business experience of the principals enables them constantly to introduce for the benefit of their students, it is made greatly superior in all respects.

Departments of Book-keeping and Accounts.

Organized and conducted upon the Counting Room system, the Halls of the study being fitted up with appropriate Counters, Desks, etc., as in Real Business, and the student at once introduced to the practical workings and routine of business as conducted in banks, counting rooms, railroad offices, etc.

Commercial Law.

By special arrangement with the Law School of the University of Chicago, the sessions of which are held in our College rooms, our Students are privileged to attend all lectures in this department, and to receive Instruction in this important branch of the course, from the able, accomplished and learned Professors of that School; and it affords us much gratification to be enabled to offer them these extraordinary and superior advantages.

"SPENCERIAN" PENMANSHIP.

This famous system—the best known to the world, is our standard.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the Story as it is, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

AN ORDINANCE

Establishing the grade of a portion of Jackson street, and for constructing sidewalks in front of lots on said street, in the first ward of the city of Janesville.

THE Mayor and Common Council of the city of Janesville do ordain as follows:

SEC. 1. The grade of Jackson street in the first ward of said city, from the north line of Bluff street to the east line of Madison street, as surveyed and marked on a plan and profile thereof, made by Edward Ruger, city engineer, and filed in the office of the city clerk, on the 12th day of April, A D 1861, is hereby established.

SEC. 2. A sidewalk is hereby required to be built, 6 feet in width, of 2 by 6 inch pine plank, underlaid with three strips of sleepers, of 2 by 4 inch pine scantling, in front of each lot numbered seventy-six (76), seventy-seven (77), seventy-eight (78), seventy-nine (79), eighty-five (85) and parcel of lot eighty-six (86) lying south of the railroad track, in Smith & Bailey's addition to Janesville. The sidewalk in front of said lots numbered 76 and 77, in Smith & Bailey's addition, to be constructed with upright posts, 4 by 4 inches, of pine, eight feet apart, firmly set into the ground, on the eastern or outer edge of the plank and extending three foot above the walk, with a railing on top of posts, 2 by 4 inches, securely fastened to each post; said posts to be let into the plank and fastened to sills and charred at the bottom to the depth set in the ground.

SEC. 3. The average expense of the said work is hereby authorized and directed to be assessed upon each foot front of the lots and part of a lot mentioned in the preceding section pro-rata equally, so that each of said lots and part of a lot or parcel of land shall be assessed with its proportion of said expense, by multiplying its number of feet front with the average expense per foot.

—Passed Sept. 26th, 1861. J. BODWELL DOE,

Attest, F. BARBERE, City Clerk. [sep57] Mayor.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

The solid service long and successfully tried, and the many advantages the Ætna Insurance Company possess in its line, should not be overlooked by those ready to insure and understanding their beste interests.

During "stringent times" the necessity for reliable Insurance becomes an imperative duty—the ability of property holders to sustain loss being then much lessened.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

100,000 lbs. Wool Wanted

AT THE

JANESVILLE WOOLEN FACTORY.

HAVING put their machinery in perfect order, the subscribers are now ready to manufacture wool into

on the most reasonable terms. We shall make our goods in the most substantial manner, and will warrant them to give satisfaction.

We shall make Black, Brown, Blue, Green and Mixed Cassimeres; Cadet and Steel Mixed Satinets White, Mixed, Red and Checked Flannels; also, various kinds of Stocking Yarn, such as White, Red, Mixed, Clouded, &c., &c.

We manufacture on shares, by the yard, or buy your wool at the highest rates and sell you cloth at reasonable prices, as you may prefer.

Custom Carding!

We are putting our Custom Carding Machine into the best possible order, and are determined to do the best work ever done in the west, and would recommend farmers to have their fine wool well cleaned at home or at the factory. Never use soap in cleansing wool, as salt and sal soda is better. We shall keep a good supply of

on hand, for sale at fair prices.

Cloth Dressing!

We shall attend promptly to this branch, also to coloring old Garments, Shawls, &c. Also, carpets washed on short notice.

Those wishing to send wool to be carded, manufactured or exchanged for cloth, by railroad, will please write us, by mail, what they want and they may rely on having their business done satisfactorily. We have made arrangements with Messrs. Cogswell & Co., of Beloit, west side of river, to receive wool of those living near or doing business at that place, which we will attend to according to directions.

Wanted!

In exchange for Cloth and Yarn.—Wood, Soap, Wool-Grease, old Rolls and most kinds of Grain, for which the highest prices will be allowed.

Please give us a call.

Something for Every Citizen, Every Fireside,

NO MAN, NO FAMILY, NO OFFICE SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

AN ORDINANCE

Establishing the grade of a portion of Jackson street, and for constructing sidewalks in front of lots on said street, in the first ward of the city of Janesville.

THE Mayor and Common Council of the city of Janesville do ordain as follows:

SEC. 1. The grade of Jackson street in the first ward of said city, from the north line of Bluff street to the east line of Madison street, as surveyed and marked on a plan and profile thereof, made by Edward Ruger, city engineer, and filed in the office of the city clerk, on the 12th day of April, A D 1861, is hereby established.

SEC. 2. A sidewalk is hereby required to be built, 6 feet in width, of 2 by 6 inch pine plank, underlaid with three strips of sleepers, of 2 by 4 inch pine scantling, in front of each lot numbered seventy-six (76), seventy-seven (77), seventy-eight (78), seventy-nine (79), eighty-five (85) and parcel of lot eighty-six (86) lying south of the railroad track, in Smith & Bailey's addition to Janesville. The sidewalk in front of said lots numbered 76 and 77, in Smith & Bailey's addition, to be constructed with upright posts, 4 by 4 inches, of pine, eight feet apart, firmly set into the ground, on the eastern or outer edge of the plank and extending three feet above the walk, with a railing on top of posts, 2 by 4 inches, securely fastened to each post; said posts to be let into the plank and fastened to sills and charred at the bottom to the depth set in the ground.

SEC. 3. The average expense of the said work is hereby authorized and directed to be assessed upon each foot front of the lots and part of a lot mentioned in the proceding section pro-rata equally, so that each of said lots and part of a lot or parcel of land shall be assessed with its proportion of said expense, by multiplying its number of feet front with the average expense per foot.
—Passed Sept. 26th, 1861. J. BODWELL DOE,
Attest, F. BARRERE, City Clerk. [sep57] Mayor.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Luxury of a State Prison.—The editor of the Chicago Record, (James Grant Wilson,) has the following mention in his last number of a flourishing state institution:

"We visited the state prison at Sing Sing, New York, the other day, and among other curious sights saw a noted forger (who acts as bookkeeper for one of the persons who contracts with the state for the labor of the convicts) occupying a sumptuously furnished room—turkey carpet, easy chairs, etc., and enjoying his cigar and champagne, and learned that he paid $7 a week for his rations. Inquiring for another notorious felon, we learned that he lived in similar style. Wishing to see him also, we could only learn from the keepers that he was 'somewhere around.' Truly a comfortable caravansera for convicts—who have money. In passing through the female department, we were struck with the high color of a rather good looking, middle aged woman, where all look so pale, and on inquiry of the matron was told the person in question was Mrs. Robinson, the veiled murderess, who regularly rouges except in rare instances, when her material is exhausted. She procures it by making an extract from the little red wild flower that grows in the prison yard."

Revolutionary Movement in Southern Kentucky.—We find the following in the Nashville-Bowling-Green-Louisville Courier of last Friday:

"Important Movement in Southern Kentucky.—On Monday last a number of prominent citizens of Southern Kentucky met at Russellville for the purpose of consulting together relative to the future, feeling that duty to themselves and their posterity, the protection of their constitutional rights, their lives and liberty, demanded that they should resist the oppressive legislation of the state legislature and the tyranny of the Lincoln dynasty. They remained in conference for several days with closed doors. On Wednesday, before their final adjournment, the injunction of secrecy upon their proceedings was removed, and we have laid before us a very brief synopsis of their action.

About forty counties were represented in the conference. Hon. H. C. Burnett presided, and R. McKee and T. S. Bryan acted as secretaries. A series of resolutions, reported by Hon. G. W. Johnson, were adopted. They recite the unconstitutional and oppressive acts of the legislature, proclaim revolution, provide for a sovereignty convention at Russellville on the 18th of the present month, recommend the organization of county guards to be placed in the service of and paid by the confederate states government, pledge resistance to all federal and state taxes for the prosecution of the war on the part of the United States, and appoint R. McKee, John C. Breckinridge, Humphrey Marshall, Geo. W. Ewing, H. W. Bruce, George B. Hodge, Wm. Preston, Geo. W. Johnson, Blanton Duncan, and P.B. Thompson to carry out the resolutions."

"About forty counties" are said to have been represented in the "convention," so called, including, no doubt, counties in all parts of the state.

Death of the Last Revolutionary Pensioner in New Hampshire.—We learn from a correspondent that Lieut. Joel McGregory died in Newport, New Hampshire, October, 31, aged one hundred years, eleven months and nine days. Lieut. McGregory was born in Enfield, Connecticut, 22d November, 1760. He volunteered in the army of the Revolution, was taken prisoner and confined in the "Old Sugar House," New York, for eight months. His fare was barely sufficient to sustain life, though living animals were abundant on and about him. He has enjoyed good health in his last years, though his mind has been somewhat impaired. In olden time he worked at nail making by hand, and has made tacks so small he could put one thousand of them in an egg-shell. For many years he has received a pension, which, with what he laid by in his younger years, has made his declining years cheerful and happy. It is supposed that he is the last surviving Revolutionary soldier in New Hampshire. All honor to his memory, and peace to his ashes.—Boston Journal.

Drilling at Camp Morton.—We have heard of a Captain, lately a railroad conductor, who, seeing that his squad were in the act of "butting up" against a fence, in his hurry to halt them shouted, "down brakes! down brakes!" So it was with one of our enthusiastic and patriotic Captains who was showing the evolutions of his corps to some ladies on Saturday last at Camp Morton. His commanding officer, a distinguished Colonel, had given the order to the whole regiment to "halt." Our Captain is a little deaf, and, besides, at the time, was talking with the damsels. So soon as he understood the state of the case he hallooed, "whoa! whoa!" at the top of his voice and brought his gallant soldiers up standing immediately.

Henry Ward Beecher Condemns the Fremont Persecution.—Speaking of the persecution practiced by men in power against Fremont, Henry Ward Beecher says in some recent remarks of his in his church, as follows:

It is a shame, and there ought to be an indignation in the community that shall bring this trifling with the public interests committed to this man's ends to an end.—His means are less. He has had neither the sympathy nor the help that he had a right to expect. And if this campaign shall fail in his hands, it is my solemn conviction that the public interests ,will have been sacrificed for the sake of putting out of the way a dangerous rival.

Discoveries.—The excavations which are being made for the canal for the Isthmus of Suez have led to the discovery at Gizeh of a religious edifice as vast as the Louvre, and which was constructed more than five thousand years ago. At Karnak, also a temple, the circuit of which is stated to be four kilometres (two and a half miles) has been discovered, and another at Edfou, containing twenty saloons. The walls of these latter edifices are decorated with sculptures, hieroglyphics and paintings, still fresh.

A crime unknown as such in the United States has been suitably punished in Canada, Thomas Braund, an employee of the Welland railway has been convicted of criminal recklessness in causing the destruction of life and loss of property on that railway on the 18th of May last. He was sentenced to twelve months imprisonment; the light term being given in consideration of his long incarceration previous to trial.

GREAT REDUCTION
—IN—
The Prices
—OF—
SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES,
Well known to be the best for
Manufacturing Purposes:
No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,
Reduced to $70.
No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,
Reduced to $75.

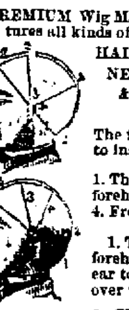

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,
FIFTY DOLLARS.
The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.
Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy
LEATHER WORK,
in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.
We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.
We have always on hand
Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.
We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.
Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the
GENUINE ARTICLE.
In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.
☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.
☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of
I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE, which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.
The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.
The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Wednesday Evening, Nov. 13, 1861.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Our Officers who Return Slaves get No Thanks for It.

It is a fact not disputed, we believe, that several of our generals have been so wanting in self respect and humanity as to return fugitive slaves to their masters, using a guard of soldiers for that purpose. It is a mean business, and we do not see why any man should desire to perform so shameful a work without being under legal or military obligation to do so. It is entirely voluntary on their part, and must be done because it is agreeable to their natures, or on account of the supposed satisfaction it may give to their superiors at Washington.—Whatever may be the motive, the act is not very highly appreciated either at the north or the south.

Southern men must know that such a duty ought in the nature of things to be viewed with great repugnance by northern officers, and hence they must despise him who debases himself by attempting to conciliate slaveholders in that way. We have an instance of the distrust with which the rebels look upon such acts, and the insolent jeers with which they greeted the rendition of a fugitive slave to his secession master, by Gen. Sherman in Kentucky. In relation to this case a correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writing from Louisville, says:

I was permitted the other day to glance over an editorial in the Louisville Courier of the 30th, at the head of which were quoted some remarks of the Journal, on the return by Gen. Sherman of a fugitive slave to a secessionist. Doubtless, the act of rendition was intended to conciliate rebels; but so far was it from having such an effect, that the Courier, the mouth-piece of the rebels in this state, denounced it as a Yankee cheat, intended to delude the "friends of the south." The Courier felt sure that no one would regard the rendition of a fugitive slave by an Ohio Yankee as anything but a transparent trick.

On these figures (says the Journal) Mr. Harvey falls 304 short of the vote of the same counties two years ago, when Gov. Randall was elected by a majority of 3,940. The majority for Mr. Harvey will be about that of two years ago.

In addition to these returns, the telegraph reports Door at 250 and Shawana at 82 for the Union ticket.

Other reports vary from this table, but there seem to be no doubt of Harvey's election.

Donations to Soldiers.—Many of the loyal and patriotic women in this portion of Wisconsin have prepared various articles for the sick and wounded soldiers, and have found it difficult to forward their donations to western hospitals, where it is supposed there will be a greater need of them than at the east, where there are so many hands to work for this object. To obviate this difficulty, Rev. H. A. Reid has been appointed state agent of the "Wisconsin Florence Nightingale Union" at St. Louis, Mo., to whose care all packages of this kind may be addressed, for the use of the U. S. Sanitary Commission.

The general agent of the American Express Company in Wisconsin has directed all agents of their company in this state to charge half the usual freight on all articles so donated. When packages are forwarded, all charges should be prepaid, if possible. We would also state that J. M. Burgess, Esq., Postmaster of this city, will attend to forwarding packages by express to St. Louis for the use of the military hospitals in the west.

Another Minnesota Regiment.—We learn that the 3d Minnesota regiment will pass through Janesville or Friday or Saturday of this week, on their way to the seat of war.

The Naval Expedition.

It is probable, as reported, that the naval expedition has captured and occuped Port Royal and Beaufort. The following description, with a look at the map, will give a good idea of the nature of the country:

Port Royal Entrance is an inlet from the Atlantic, in latitude 32 deg. 8 min. north, 50 miles southwest of Charleston, and 15 miles northeast of Tybee Inlet, the entrance of Savannah river. The opening from the Atlantic is between Edding Island and Hilton head Island, and at that point is about three miles wide. The prolongation inward of Port Royal entrance is called Broad River and Port Royal River.

Running up this for about 25 miles bending off eastward through the Coosaw river, and coming out to the Atlantic again through St. Helena Sound, you have an irregular area of about 25 miles by 15. This amphibious region is cut up by numerous rivers, creeks and inlets into a great many islands (Sea Islands) of various sizes, the chief of which are Port Royal, St. Helena, Paris, Ladies, Coosaw, Morgan, Dathaw, Edding, Chaplin, Prentiss and Hunting.

Along the coast of South Carolina, as in North Carolina and Georgia, stretches a a low and narrow sand bar—a kind of defensive outwork of the land, seldom inhabited except by lost Indians and runaway negroes, who subsist by hunting and fishing. At distant intervals there are shallow breaches through which the quiet tide steals in twice a day, swelling the natural lagoons and damming the outlet of the fresh water streams till the current is destroyed and turned back, and their flood dispersed far and wide over the debatable land of the Cypress Swamp. Then, when the heavy rains in the interior have swollen the rivers, their eddying currents deposit all along the edges of the sandy islands and capes the rich freight they have brought from the calcareous or granitic mountains in which they rise, with the organic waste of the great forests through which they flow. This is the soil of the rice and cotton plantations, which are always found in such parts of the tidal swamps adjoining the mainland or the sandy islands as are left entirely dry at the ebb of the water.

The entrance to Port Royal is the best channel for ships through the bars in the whole range of ports below Norfolk.

Ships which draw fourteen or fifteen feet water may go in at Tybee and proceed through land to Beaufort in Port Royal Islands; and from Beaufort, vessels of eight or nine feet water may go through land to Charleston. From Charleston, vessels drawing seven or eight feet water may go through land to the river Medoay, in Georgia, which lies thirty miles south of Savannah.

Port Royal Island, the chief of the group above mentioned, is surrounded by the Broad, Port Royal, Coosaw and Beaufort rivers, and is about twelve miles long and six wide. On the east side of the island, and about midway, stands the town of Beaufort on Beaufort river, the approach to which does not admit vessels of over eleven feet draft.

Beaufort is about ten miles from the sea, and sixteen miles from the Charleston and Savannah railroad, and this important line is itself directly approachable by water through Broad river, and St. Helena sound and Combahee river. A force moving up the river from Beaufort, via Beaufort and Coosaw and Port Royal rivers, would strike the Charleston and Savannah railroad at about midway between Charleston and Savannah, and about fifty miles from either city—a fact which renders obvious the immense stragetic importance of that line. Beaufort is the Newport of South Carolina, and has a white population of about one thousand.

Beaufort district is the southernmost district or county of South Carolina, and has an area of 1,540 square miles. It is separated from Georgia by the Savannah river, and is bounded on the northeast by the Combahee river, and intersected by the Coosawhatche. The surface is low and level, the soil sandy and alluvial, producing cotton, rice Indian corn and potatoes in great abundance. It is one of the most thickly-settled districts of the state, the population in 1850 being 38,805, of whom no less than 32,279 were negro slaves.

We add the following from the World:

Beaufort, which has the deepest and finest harbor on the southern coast, is a pleasant little village of about a thousand inhabitants, situated sixteen miles inland, and distant fifty miles from Charleston and thirty-five from Savannah. The landing of a large force in its vicinity is a menace to both these cities, which will compel the rebels to keep a large stationary force for the defense of each, besides confronting us with another at Beaufort. They cannot send detachments from the latter to either of these important cities so quickly as we can dispatch a large force from Beaufort by sea; nor can the troops at one of them be sent to the defense of the other, without leaving it exposed to attack by a new armament which may pounce on it from Fortress Monroe.—The rebel troops at Charleston and Savannah must be sufficient, at each of these cities, to defend it from our whole southern force which can be wielded against either at will, and which will require the rebels to stand ready with three times as many men to meet an attack as would be necessary if the point of landing had been less skilfully selected.

The country around Beaufort, for a great distance back, is as level as any of our western prairies, which will prevent the rebels, in the battles likely to occur, from fighting with the advantages of ground which has been of such service to them in Virginia. They can make no cunning retreats, drawing us on until a strong position makes it safe to hazard a battle. On those extensive flats every battalion of our men will be at least an even match for every battalion of theirs, and the Union army may count upon "an open field and fair fight," in which hitherto they have always been victorious.

The important relations of this war to the negro question and the cotton supply contribute also to make Beaufort the most eligible position in all the south for a base of operations. We strike into the heart of the region that produces the most valuable of all the varieties of the staple, known in the market as the Sea Island cotton. The district (or county) of Beaufort alone produced, in 1850, 12,672 bales, besides more rice than any other county in the southern states; the adjoining district of Colleton, on the northeast, 13,005 bales; and the other adjacent district of Barnwell, on the northwest, 10,138 bales. This is one of the most opulent regions in the whole south, the plantations being extensive and the slaves numerous in proportion to the white population. In Beaufort district there were, in 1850, 5,947 white inhabitants and 32,297 slaves; in Colleton, 7,403 white and 31,771 slaves; a disproportion so great as to touch southern apprehensions in their tenderest point, and to bring the inhabitants, at once, face to face with the terrible consequences involved in a prompt choice between a return to loyalty and persistence in rebellion.

The railroad crosses the head of Broad river about fifteen miles above Beaufort. It is probable that our forces will occupy that point; but it does not seem probable that they will attempt to march on either Charleston or Savannah. Wherever they occupy they will soon be placed in a state of siege by the confederates, who will have the advantage of railroads for gathering troops, while our re-enforcements and subsistence will have to be sent by sea.

FORTESS MONROE, Nov. 12.

The Norfolk house is reported to have been burnt on Sunday night with a large amount of stores. The bark Seraphine of Baltimore from Rio with a cargo of coffee was wrecked on cape Henry, all hands were saved. The cargo fell into the hands of the rebels.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

The substance of accounts published in the Norfolk Day Book has been received here containing important particulars regarding movements of the great fleet, one report says forty-two vessels made their appearance off Port Royal, one dispatch says forty-five and another that seven vessels ran by the rebel batteries at Hilton Head and Island Point. The rebels say that all guns and their batteries on Hilton Head and Island Point, were dismounted. The Charleston Mercury says those guns were dismounted by their own recoil, rather a remarkable statement. The latest dispatch dated Thursday Eve., Nov. 7th 5 P. M. says, 5 federal vessels are now in sight off Beaufort and an attack is expected to-night. The dispatches in the Norfolk Day Book were mostly from Charleston. The Charleston Mercury has news from east Tennessee showing indications that union men there were moving. They are accused of cutting down telegraph wires and burning bridges to prevent movements of rebels.

FT. MONROE, Nov. 11 via Baltmore 12.

No intelligence as yet from the fleet.—Flag of truce brought up to-day the crew of French Corvette, wrecked last Tuesday near Occracock Inlet N. C., she had no pilot and went ashore during heavy weather, crew 100 in number all saved and reached Norfolk. Four fishermen also came from across James river last night brought the same report as the five deserters yesterday from Yorktown, viz that our troops had taken Charleston. The Dawn arrived today from Washington having successfully run the blockade. Thirty-two shots were fired at her. Another flag of truce seut from Norfolk yesterday brought down reports that after the capture of the batteries the rebels fell back to Beaufort where a most desperate struggle took place; there was terrible excitement at Norfolk.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.

The Inquirer's special dispatch from Fort Monroe, says the Union men of East Tennessee have burned a number of railroad bridges and cut telegraph lines to prevent the transportation of troops. One bridge of 200 feet span was destroyed on Saturday morning last, on the East Tennessee railroad. Four structures on the line north of Knoxville were entirely destroyed. A very heavy wooden bridge at Charleston, Bradley county, Tenn., was altogether destroyed on the evening of Friday last.

Charleston is 75 miles southwest of Knoxville. This action of the Union men will convince the government that East Tennessee will redeem herself if an opportunity offers.

The Inquirer has a special which says that a privateer and two schooners in Swan' gury Inlet, were burned on the night of the 4th by boats from the Luzerne, stationed in Chiuticonque.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

A family letter received in this city, dated on board the frigate Sumter, off Galveston, Oct. 25th, confirms the report of the capture of the pirate Sumter. She was caught in her own trap. It seems she mistook one of the gun boats for a merchantman, and started in pursuit. When the gun-boat had drawn her out far enough she turned and run her ashore. Her officers and crew are prisoners on board the Niagara.

From officers who have arrived here, it is ascertained that a reconnoisance by 16,000 men was made an an early hour this morning in a southwesterly direction from Alexandria.

Two thousand rebels arrived near Occatuck yesterday from the main body of their army.

The rebel steamer Paige still harbors in Quointoc Creek, and may be seen from Budd's Ferry.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 12.

The following additional particulars are from the Charleston Mercury, of Friday, 8th. It says that the fleet appeared off the mouth of Broad river between 9 and 10 o'clock Thursday forenoon, and under cover of a heavy fire seven (one account says 15) steamers passed the batteries. One account says one of the federal vessels was crippled, but another account makes no mention of any disaster. The rebels report their loss in the batteries light.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.

Advices from the frigate Niagara to the 24th of October, say nothing about prisoners from the Sumter, and her reported capture is likely untrue.

Washington special—A force of federal troops have been sent to Mathias Point to clear out woods and bushes, and make a reconnoisance.

LEXINGTON, Ky., 12.

The battle at Pikeville lasted Friday and Saturday, and victory was complete. Gens. Williams and Hawes are among the prisoners.

Advices from Kanawha state that the rebels who had been shelling Camp Tompkins from Cotton Hill, had retired upon the approach of forces under Col. DeVilliers. Nine of the enemie's pickets were killed, with no loss on our side. Col. DeVilliers has taken possession of the Hill.

The defeat of Union forces at Guyandotte was accomplished by trickery on the part of the inhabitants. It seems a force of rebel cavalry, variously estimated at 500 to 1,000, had concentrated in the country back of the town. These proposed with the assistance of the rebel inhabitants of Guyandotte to annihilate the federal forces in that town. This force consisted of 250 of a Virginia regiment, and a few members of the Virginia cavalry. It was agreed between the rebel cavalry and rebel citizens to massacre our troops in cold blood; accordingly rebel citizens were very kind to our troops last Sunday evening, and invited them to their houses on various pretexts, and all who were off duty accepted the invitation.

While they were being entertained at about half past eight at night the rebel cavalry dashed into town. Signals were displayed from every house where the federals were, and into these the rebels rushed, murdering the unarmed soldiers in cold blood. The rebel citizens, men and women, rushed to arms and aided the cavalry in their slaughter.

The federals in camp prepared as soon as possible for defense, but were overpowered, and had to break. Very few were killed in the engagement with the cavalry, nearly all killed being murdered in the houses.

When Col. Zugler arrived and learned particulars of the affair, he ordered the destruction of the town, and the buildings were immediately fired and the whole town reduced to ashes.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

Six regiments of infantry and two batteries, and three companies of cavalry, under Gen. Heintzelman, made a reconnoisance to-day as far as Ocquan creek. Captain Todd's company of Lincoln Cavalry also went in the direction of Buck's Station.—They were sent out to make a reconnoisance in advance of the infantry; when several miles from the other part of the division they were suddenly surrounded by a large number of rebels who had been concealed in the woods. A skirmish ensued, and the cavalry cut their way through with a loss of three men killed, one wounded and three prisoners, including it is supposed, Capt. Todd, who had returned some ways in advance of his command. Generals Hallock and Buel leave to-morrow for the west to enter upon their respective military departments.

DARNESTOWN, Nov. 9.

An arrival from eastern Virginia brings dates from Manasses to 16th Oct. The central division of the rebel army was at Centreville, and an immense number of hands engaged in erecting entrenchments anticipating an attack by McClellan. Johnson was at Centreville and Beauregard at Fairfax depot on the right of Braddock's Road and was also busily preparing for the anticipated attack. The combined forces of Johnson and Beauregard is estimated at not to exceed 100,000 fighting men, but reinforcements are expected from Richmond. Their artillery amounted to 2000 pieces, mostly indifferently manned, and horses of poor quality.

BOSTON, Nov. 12.

Geo. K. Woodwin's menagerie was burnt this evening and all the animals smothered to death—some seventy or eighty in number.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

The steamer Bienville arrived at Fort Monroe yesterday, from Port Royal Sunday, with the intelligence of the complete success of the naval expedition. Our loss was eight men and one officer, the chief engineer of the Mohegan. Forts Walker and Beauregard captured, Beaufort was taken and only one white man found in the place.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

Special to Tribune.—On Sunday evening 400 men of Graham's regiment of the Sickle's brigade, crossed to Mathias Point and made a thorough examination the next morning. The bush and houses which have served as a shelter to the rebels, were burned in Occomac.

The Union men are believed to be in a majority in Northampton. In the other counties of the eastern shore of Virginia, the rebels have the upper hand; over 1,000 are in arms, and at one point there is a fortification.

Times' dispatches.—Capt. McKeever, the assistant adjutant general of the department of the west, arrived here to-day and was immediately ordered to report himself under arrest. It is understood that his arrest was based on an order from Gen. Curtis at St. Louis.

Last night Mr. Lowe and Gen. Sickles made a balloon ascension from near Quantico creek, and remained up for some time. The balloon was wafted almost directly over some of the rebel camps. There is no doubt of the rebels being present in a strong force.

I am informed, upon good authority, that Col. Miles will not again be assigned to a command.

FORT MORNOE, Nov. 11.

Special to Herald.—Col. Max Webber with 6 companies of the 20th N. Y. and 12th made a reconnoisance in force this morninug at New Market Bridge. The scouts reported two howitzers in position by the rebels, Col Webber immediately advanced and drew their fire which was steadily returned, the enemy losing two men killed and several wounded. The rebels then withdrew taking with them their guns and slain comrades. Col. Webber did not lose a man.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

FT. MONROE, Nov. 12.

The steamer Bienville has just arrived at Old Point from the great expedition. She left Port Royal on Sunday morning, and brings cheering intelligence. Capt. Stedman, however, left her at this place and proceeded to Washington with dispatches and trophies, two brass cannon and secession flags. He reports the gale encountered by the fleet was very severe; the Union and Osceola went ashore and were lost, as previously reported. The Governor foundered at sea, but the Isaac T. Smith succeeded in saving all her crew, with the exception of a few mariners. The fleet arrived at Port Royal on Monday the 4th. On Tuesday the smaller gunboats rounded in the channel under a fire from the forts, which did no damage. On Wednesday the weather prevented active operations, but on Thursday morning, the 7th inst., the men of war and the gunboats advanced to the attack. The action commenced at 10 A. M. and was hotly carried on by both sides, and lasted about four hours, at the end of which time the rebels were cempelled by the shower of shells to abandon their works and beat a hasty retreat. Our loss was eight men and one officer, the chief engineer of the Mohican was killed, and about 20 wounded.—The rebel loss is unknown; 52 bodies were found by our men and buried. All their wounded, except two, were carried off.

Two forts were captured—Fort Walker on Hilton Head, mounting 23 guns, and Fort Beauregard on Bay Point, mounting 19 guns of heavy calibre. The forts were both new and splendid earthworks of great strength, constructed in the highest style of military science, and pronounced by our engineers as impregnable against any assault by land forces. The final retreat of the rebels was a perfect rout. They left everything, arms and equipments of all kinds, even to the officers' swords and commissions, all the letters and papers, both public and private, order books and documents of all kinds, were left in their flight and fell into our hands, affording our officers much valuable information. Among the papers was a telegram from Jeff. Davis to the commander of the post, informing him of the sailing of the fleet, and that he knew their destination to be Port Royal. The whole surrounding country was seized with a perfect panic. The day after the fight the Senora and two other gun-boats proceeded to Beaufort and found but one white man in the town and he was drunk.

All the plantations up the river seemed to be deserted, except by the negroes, who were seen in great numbers, and who, as the boats passed, came down to the shore with bundles in their hands, as if they expected to be taken off. They seized all the letters in the post office.

After the capture of the forts, the whole army, about 15,000 men, were safely landed and established on shore. The forts were but little injured, but the rebels could not stand the explosion of our big shells. The force of the enemy, as ascertained from their papers, was 4,000 men under Gen. Drayton of South Carolina. Our victory is complete, the rebels leaving everything but their lives, which they saved by running; but four persons were found, and two of them were wounded. All hands of the fleet are represented as acting in a most gallant manner. The reporters who accompanied the expedition, from New York, are on the Bienville with full details.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.

The Tribune's special from Fort Monroe, says that the entire fleet formed in two grand lines for the fight. The Wabash led and the Bienville flanking the movement, which was in a circle, first delivering broadsides into Fort Beauregard on the notch north-west, and as the fleet came round, raking Fort Walker on the south-west; both forts responded vigorously. The Pawnee and Mohegan got aground and were considerably damaged. The rebel loss is supposed to be 200. Gen. Drayton commanded at Fort Walker and Colonel Elliott at Fort Beauregard. The rebels retreated up Skull creek to a village twenty-five miles in the interior, where it is supposed, they intend making a stand.

The negroes had already begun to pillage and destroy Beaufort. The white population fled to Charleston, on small steamers, by the inside route.

Gen. Sherman has hundreds of negro laborers.

There was a panic at Savannah and it was believed its capture would be easy.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 13th.

From an officer just come up we gather the following additional particulars: none of our vessels were sunk. The Pawnee lost six killed and two wounded, and suffered more injury than any other, but was not disabled. A round shot went through her ward room. The Wabash had her main mast badly hurt with round shot. The Pochahoutus had one man injured. The assistant engineer of the Mohegan was badly wounded, and the chief engineer killed. When our troops took possession of the forts, they found the flag flying on Fort Hilton. The rebels had made works and fixed the halliards of the flag so that when the flag should be drawn down the mine would be sprung. The halliards sprung a mine in the house used by the officers, but did very little damage and hurt no one. The magazines did not explode. A large quantity of powder was found, also a large quantity of English ammunition and projectiles.

It is understood that Gen. Sherman will improve the defenses of his position before making any forward movement. In the forts was found supplies of ammunition and stores of the best description. Com. Dupont will immediately survey the harbor and place buoys and lights, and the position will be made a permanent base of operations. The fleet stood within 800 to 1,000 feet of the forts, using five second fuses, and fired shells into them at the rate of 2,000 per hour. Not a single shell sent by the rebels burst on the ships.

The Wabash was struck several times, as was most of the fleet, but every ship was in fighting condition when the rebels took to their heels. The surgeon of Fort Walker was killed. At Charleston, next day, thirteen minute guns were fired, indicating the burial of a brigadier general. The troops had not occupied Beaufort when the steamer left, being better engaged in strengthening their position.

AGENCY FOR NATIONAL LOAN.

PURSUANT to instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, a book will be opened on the twentieth day of November, 1861, at my office, in Janesville, for subscriptions under my superintendence for Treasury Notes, to be issued under the act of July 17, 1861. These notes will be issued in sums of fifty dollars, one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars, one thousand dollars, and five thousand dollars each, dated 19th August, 1861, payable three years after date to the order of the subscriber or as directed, and bearing interest at the rate of 7 3-10 per cent, per annum, payable semi-annually; such interest being at the rate of two cents each day on every hundred dollars. For the convenience of the holder, each note will have coupons attached expressing the several amounts of semi-annual interest, which coupons may be detached and presented for payment separately from the notes.

Subscriptions for such Treasury Notes will be received during fifteen days from the day of opening the book as aforesaid and afterwards. No subscription for less than fifty dollars nor for any fraction of that sum can be received. Subscriptions of fifty dollars or one hundred dollars must be paid in lawful coin of the United States at the time of subscribing. Subscriptions of more than one hundred dollars may be paid at once; or, if preferred, one tenth at the time of subscribing and one-third of the whole amount on every twentieth day thereafter until the whole shall be paid. No payment of less than fifty dollars can be accepted, that being the smallest sum for which Treasury Notes can be issued.

Certificates will be granted in duplicate to subscribers for the amounts so paid, the original of which the subscriber will transmit by mail to the Secretary of the Treasury, when Treasury Notes, as aforesaid, will be issued thereon to such subscriber or his order, carrying interest as expressed in such certificate; but in cases where only a part of the amount subscribed is paid at the time of subscribing, Treasury Notes will be issued only for the payments made subsequently to the first, which will remain until the whole amount subscribed by such person shall be paid, when Treasury Notes will be issued for such first payment also. On payment of each deferred instalment, the subscriber will pay, in addition thereto, a sum equal to the interest accrued thereon from the 19th of August to the date of payment, and on final payment like interest on the amount paid on subscription, which payments of interest will be reimbursed to the subscriber in the payment of the first coupon.

The Treasury Notes issued upon such certificates by the Treasury will be sent to the subscribers by mail, or such other mode as may be indicated by them when they transmit their original certificates. The duplicate certificates may be retained by them for their own security. WM. M. TALLMAN, Agent

DENTAL CARD.

B. F. Pendleton,

The oldest resident Dentist in the city, is still in practice, and continues to operate in his profession in all departments. In those cases requiring surgical treatment, his large experience affords the best guaranty that they will be carefully and skilfully attended. In mechanical and artistic dentistry, all work will be well done and in the best mode, and (where customary with the profession,) warranted.

D. FRANK STRONG, who has been with Dr. P. during the past five years, still remains, and one or both may be found at the office during all business hours.

Office, as heretofore, in Hutson's block, next door to McKey & Bro's. Hours, in summer and fall, from 7 A. M. to 7½ and 8 P. M.

Rock County Official Canvass.—The official canvass of this county was completed to-day, and shows the following majorities on the state ticket:

Harvey	1,827
Salomon	1,360
Lewis	1,865
Hastings	1,980
Howe	1,667
Ramsay	1,862
Pickard	1,994

Thirteenth Regiment.—Rev. H. C. Tilton has been appointed chaplain and J. W. Allen sutler of the 13th regiment.

☞ The sale of those engravings will take place this evening at 7 o'clock.

☞ Winchell will be at Lappin's Hall Friday evening, with an entire new budget.

Concert Thursday Evening.—The musical convention now in session in this city is a decided success, there being a very large attendance of the best singers in this section of the state. Mr. Root is assisted by Mrs. Mattison and Miss Root. The convention will close with a concert on Thursday evening, in Lappin's Hall. This will be a rare opportunity for our citizens to hear some of the best musical talent in the country. Mrs. Mattison will be remembered with great pleasure by those who witnessed her truly wonderful musical power one year since. It is claimed by good judges that she is now one of the best American singers. It is understood that our citizens will give this effort to improve our singing a cordial and generous support.

Town of Union.—Notwithstanding the war and general pressure of the times, we see continual evidences of prosperity thro'out Rock county. An idea of the thrift and industrious character of our people may be formed from the fact that there is in course of construction and completion, in the town of Union alone, about thirty new dwellings—Evansville and vicinity having the greater part. Many of these are of commodious and substantial character, on solid foundations, raising their heads high with beauty of design and enduring solidity. In this class is the new brick store in Evansville commenced last February by Mr. James Lemon, the hall over which, 60x22 feet, is occupied by Union Lodge No. 32, F. & A. M., the first floor being of the most tasteful and substantial kind of modern mercantile establishments.

Grand Concert.—The musical convention now in session at Lappin's Hall, under the direction of George F. Root, will close with a concert on Thursday evening, Nov. 14th, commencing at 7 o'clock precisely.

The chorus is one of the finest assembled in the city, and will be assisted by Mrs. Mattison of Chicago, now one of the best American singers. The performance will consist of choruses, solos, duets and quartets by the convention, in which Mrs. Mattison, Miss F. A. Root and Mr. Root will take a part. Tickets 25 cents—for sale at the door.

More About Sugar Cane.

Messrs. Editors:—Permit me to introduce to your notice a sample of syrup made from Chinese sugar cane, raised by me this season. Having for the last four years experimented in its culture, I have come (as the Frenchman said) to the "grand conclusion" that sorghum syrup is a fixed fact, and that it will pay, and that the sooner the farmers of Wisconsin go into its cultivation the better. Nine-tenths of the sweetening used in every farmer's family, may be made at home; thereby lessening his expenditures very materially, and having at the same time a better and cleanlier article than he usually buys.

We use it in coffee, and it very readily enters into all our culinary arrangements. If every farmer in the free state would cultivate only one half an acre (which will produce two barrels,) it would send a bomb shell into the plantations of Louisiana, that would be more effectual than all our armies, for it would call forth the exclamation of Othello "My occupation's gone," and ask in that event what would slaves be worth.

The question is often asked, what shall we do for mills. Our enterprising townsmen, Messrs. Harris, Guild & Angel, have made a most superior article, which will crush it so thoroughly that you can almost ignite it with a match. In some future article I will endeavor to give my mode of cultivation, harvesting and boiling. I have no axes to grind in relation to this matter. It has been so beneficial and economical in my family, that I desire others may be equally benefitted. Yours respectfully,

W. C. LOWBER.

P. S. Persons desirous of seeing the "modus operandi" of syrup manufacture, in full blast, will please call at my plantation this and the following week.

W. C. L.

We understand that Mr. James A. Denniston is using this syrup at his bakery opposite the Hyatt House, and is well pleased with it. He considers it in all respects equal to the southern syrup. A specimen may be found at this office.—Eds. Gazette.

Apportioning Jurors.—A. W. Root, City of Beloit; A. C. Douglass, Plymouth; Joseph Doolittle, Magnolia.

A large number of accounts were presented and referred.

Mr. Collins offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the chair, whose duty it shall be to prepare and present to this board a report of the amount of money necessary to be raised for the support of the families of men, citizens of the county of Rock, who have volunteered and are in the military service of the state, or of the United States, together with a plan for the distribution of the same among the families thus to be assisted.

The chair appointed the following committee under this resolution: H. W. Collins, A. W. Root, H. G. Greenman.

The chair appointed H. Northrop to act in place of S. K. Blodgett, on committees.

Mr. Greenman offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the sum of $20 be and is hereby appropriated to H. S. Gould as a remuneration for expenses and services rendered in arresting and delivering S. C. Bigelow to the sheriff of Rock county. Referred to committee on miscellaneous acct's.

We will now say, in conclusion, to the rich and poor, old and young, that will not be undersold by any firm in the United States. Don't be deceived by false signals, but come to the store of McKey & Bro.'s where you will see more goods than the combined stocks of the would-be large stores of this city.

To meet the wants of our increasing trade, we are now enlarging our store, which, when completed, will contain in size with any west of New York city. The new addition will be completed in 30 days from date, making the size of our store 44 by 166 feet, enabling us to do all our wholesale and retail business on the ground floor. Respectfully Submitted,

McKEY & BRO.,

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
Cash Capital over - - $1,900,000
all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

on the most reasonable terms. We shall make our goods in the most substantial manner, and will warrant them to give satisfaction.

We shall make Black, Brown, Blue, Green and Mixed Cassimeres; Cadet and Steel Mixed Satinets White, Mixed, Red and Checked Fannels; also, various kinds of Stocking Yarn, such as White, Red, Mixed, Clouded, &c., &c.

We manufacture on shares, by the yard, or buy your wool at the highest rates and sell you cloth at reasonable prices, as you may prefer.

Custom Carding!

We are putting our Custom Carding Machine into the best possible order, and are determined to do the best work ever done in the west, and would recommend farmers to have their fine wool well cleaned at home or at the factory. Never use soap in cleansing wool, as salt and sal soda is better. We shall keep a good supply of

on hand, for sale at fair prices.

Cloth Dressing!

We shall attend promptly to this branch, also to coloring old Garments, Shawls, &c. Also, carpets washed on short notice.

Those wishing to send wool to be carded, manufactured or exchanged for cloth, by railroad, will please write us, by mail, what they want and they may rely on having their business done satisfactorily. We have made arrangements with Messrs. Cogswell & Co., of Beloit, west side of river, to receive wool of those living near or doing business at that place, which we will attend to according to directions.

Wanted!

In exchange for Cloth and Yarn,—Wood, Soap, Wool-Grease, old Rolls and most kinds of Grain, for which the highest prices will be allowed.

Bryant, Bell and Stratton's Consolidated Chicago Commercial College

Link in the National Chain.

LOCATED AT

CHICAGO, St. Louis, New York, Philadelphia, Albany, Buffalo, Cleveland and Detroit. Scholarship good through the entire chain of eight Colleges.

CONSOLIDATION of "Bryant & Stratton's Mercantile College" and "Bell's Commercial College," now conducted as one Institution which is the recipient of an extraordinary and unprecedented patronage.

LARMON BLOCK,

Corner Clark and Washington Streets, Chicago.

H. B. BRYANT, D. V. BELL, H. D. STRATTON.

Principals and Proprietors.

By this consolidation the collegiate course of this Institute is greatly enlarged and with the improvements which the business experience of the principals enables them constantly to introduce for the benefit of their students, it is made greatly superior in all respects.

Departments of Book-keeping and Accounts.

Organized and conducted upon the COUNTING ROOM system, the Halls of the study being fitted up with appropriate Counters, Desks, etc., as in REAL BUSINESS, and the student at once introduced to the practical workings and routine of business as conducted in banks, counting rooms, railroad offices, etc.

Commercial Law.

By special arrangement with the Law School of the University of Chicago, the sessions of which are held in our College rooms, our Students are privileged to attend all lectures in this department, and to receive instruction in this important branch of the course, from the able, accomplished and learned Professors of that School; and it affords us much gratification to be enabled to offer them these EXTRAORDINARY AND SUPERIOR ADVANTAGES.

"SPENCERIAN" PENMANSHIP.

This famous system—the BEST known to the world, is our standard.

Something for Every Citizen, Every Fireside, Every Rader!

NO MAN, NO FAMILY, NO OFFICE SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a corrected, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

AN ORDINANCE

Establishing the grade of a portion of Jackson street, and for constructing sidewalks in front of lots on said street, in the first ward of the city of Janesville.

THE Mayor and Common Council of the city of Janesville do ordain as follows:

SEC. 1. The grade of Jackson street in the first ward of said city, from the north line of Bluff street to the east line of Madison street, as surveyed and marked on a plan and profile thereof, made by Edward Ruger, city engineer, and filed in the office of the city clerk, on the 12th day of April, A D 1861, is hereby established.

SEC. 2. A sidewalk is hereby required to be built, 6 feet in width, of 2 by 6 inch pine plank, underlaid with three strips of sleepers, of 2 by 4 inch pine scantling, in front of each lot numbered seventy-six (76), seventy-seven (77), seventy-eight (78), seventy-nine (79), eighty-five (85) and parcel of lot eighty-six (86) lying south of the railroad track, in Smith & Bailey's addition to Janesville. The sidewalk in front of said lots numbered 76 and 77, in Smith & Bailey's addition, to be constructed with upright posts, 4 by 4 inches, of pine, eight feet apart, firmly set into the ground, on the eastern or outer edge of the plank and extending three feet above the walk, with a railing on top of posts, 2 by 4 inches, securely fastened to each post; said posts to be let into the plank and fastened to sills and charred at the bottom to the depth set in the ground.

SEC. 3. The average expense of the said work is hereby authorized and directed to be assessed upon each foot front of the lots and part of a lot mentioned in the preceding section pro-rata equally, so that each of said lots and part of a lot or parcel of land shall be assessed with its proportion of said expense, by multiplying its number of feet front with the average expense per foot.
